What are you wearing
On your feet this weather?
There is style in footwear as there is in hats. Each year the Granby Rubbers and Overshoes are modelled to fit all the fashionable shapes of boots. They are thin so as to prevent clumsy appearance and feeling and to make them so necessitates the use of the finest quality of rubber. While Granby Rubbers and Overshoes are up to date in Style, Fit and Finish, they retain their old enduring quality.

Granby Rubbers wear like Iron.

MASSIVE CARPET SALE.
CARPETS AT COST.

Now is the time to secure a good Carpet at a low price.
For the next Thirty Days we are going to sell our entire stock of Carpets at cost.
Our object in doing this is to make room for one of the largest carpet shipments ever received in Belleville, which we expect to receive about the 25th February.

It's a hard task!

—for some people to write—even a postal; kind o' got out of the notion of it.

Do not let these feelings interfere with business. If you want to paper this Spring with the prettiest and most artistic papers you ever saw and at the prices you want to pay, do not let your dread of correspondence get the better of you, but as soon as you read this, get a postal at once and write this upon it.

Dear Sir,—
Please send me samples of Wall Paper suitable for (MENTION ROOMS HERE), and do not exceed (MENTION PRICES HERE) per single roll. I saw your advertisement in (MENTION NEWSPAPER HERE).

Yours truly,

It is a pure, pronounced by expert chemists,
THE PERFECT TOOTH POWDER.

ORMSBY.
We have quite a lot of snow here now;
it is about three feet deep. Some of the young fellows look quite lonesome around here for the roads are very bad.
William Robt. Brinkton arrived home from the shanty last week; one young lady is all smiles.
Mr. Beaumont, a resident of Coe Hill, while coming down the track was struck by the train and was thrown off the track. His arm was broken and other slight injuries received. It is thought he will recover.
The English church of Ormsby is slowly progressing.
The Orange Lodge held their meeting in Victory Hall on the 26th day of February.
The merchant of Ormsby has gone to Madoc to visit his friends.

MELROSE.
Mr. Don and Miss Rose Longwell, of Foxboro, were the guests of Miss Aggie Mc-Laren on Sunday.
Miss Carrie McFarlane is visiting her sister Mrs. Fenn, of Foxboro.
D. Hoover, of Picton, spent a few days
this week with his friend Geo. English.
Miss Jennie McFarlane, of the Deseronto
Public School, spent a few days at home.
Mrs. (Rev.) MacArthur and Miss C. M.
McFarlane will attend the Annual meeting of the W. F. M. Society on Tuesday.
On the 11th inst., six delegates from Melrose, Dickson English and John Skelly are seriously ill from effects of a gripple.
Fred Patman has been appointed a delegate to the Supreme Council of the Canadian Home Circle which meets at Hamilton on the 16th inst.
The hour for holding Divine Service in the Methodist church has been changed, and will hereafter be held alternately at 2:30 and 7 o'clock p. m.

GREEN POINT.
March 4.—William Robinson, postmaster
at Fish Lake, died this morning.
Farmers are getting their peas from the John Allen Company, although it don't look much like spring with the thermometer registering five above zero.
Mrs. S. Gerson, of Percy, is visiting her brother, John Shortt, who is in his 82nd year.
Their combined age is 160 years.
Mr. & Mrs. J. Cole, of Fish Lake, were visiting at A. J. Sady's on Tuesday.
Miss E. Taverner, of Hay Bay, has been visiting at H. Vanallen's.
Rev. G. H. Potts filled the pulpit at Mount Carmel on Tuesday.
Some of our young ladies are very anxious that the ice on the Bay of Quinte and Hay Bay may remain so for some time so as not to endanger the life of a frequent visitor.
Miss F. Carman, who has had a slight attack of gripple, is better.
H. Anderson and Miss B. Fralick, of Napapan, spent several days visiting relatives in this county. They stayed over night at H. Carman's on Monday.
This has been a gala week for the ice boats
and they are out in full force.

GREYNA.
Winter is still on us; March has not improved our situation much.
The people around here are getting through with drawing wood and all seems to be ready for a thaw.
The City Dresser has come through and gone after finishing up the different jobs through the district the Clover seed has yielded fairly well. Mr. Clark, of Violet, and his men did the dressing.
John P. Mellow, whose hand was kicked by a colt and fractured, is doing nicely under the skillful treatment of Dr. Newton.
Our school is progressing well under the management of Miss Betha Curle; the attendance is very large considering the weather and roads.
Burger Huyck and daughter Maria have left their home, and locked up and gone to Prince Edward county with his daughters who are living there. Mr. Huyck is quite feeble.
C. R. Mellow has been home visiting his father W. H. Mellow for a couple of weeks before commencing the spring's work; we are pleased to see his cheerful countenance again
among us.
J. J. Card is preparing for a lengthy visit through Canada to where he and his wife have a great number of relatives.
Mrs. Ira Alcornback has returned from visiting her old home at Bethel.
The Assessor has been through, reports stock in good condition, other things favorable.
The Girl's Sewing Guild has been working
very vigorously on Saturday evenings and expects to accomplish good results. An entertainment will be conducted by the Guild on Tuesday, April 7th, the Tuesday after Easter,
at which the particulars will be announced later.

CHURCH OF THE REDEEMER.
Rev. W. S. McTavish preached at both services last Sunday.
Services at the usual hours next Sunday.
All strangers are cordially invited.
The pastor will conduct the preparatory communion service in the Napapan Presbyterian church next week.
A collection in aid of the persecuted
Armenians will be taken next Sunday.
The pastor will be taken next Sunday.
Communion will be observed on Sunday 15th inst. Rev. D. G. McPhail, of Picton, will conduct the preparatory service on the Friday evening previous.
The congregation will enjoy an "at home"
in the church on the evening of Wednesday, 11th inst. There will be a good program and refreshments will be served during the evening. It is hoped every family will be represented.
The usual weekly prayer meeting will be held on Thursday evening next.

METHODIST CHURCH.
Rev. R. Taylor has recovered from his recent illness. He conducted both services last Sunday.
The pastor will conduct the services next Sunday morning and evening.
The Sunday School is prospering, the attendance being very good.
A special collection for the running expenses of the church will be taken up on the 15th inst.

PROTECTION from the grip,
pneumonia, diphtheria, fever and epidemics is given by Hood's Sarsaparilla.
It makes PURE BLOOD.
On Saturday evening of last week a deputation representing the congregation and choir of St. Mark's church waited upon Miss Field at her mother's residence, Theresa street, where also a few other friends had assembled. Miss Field had recently tendered her resignation as a member of the choir with which she had been connected for twelve years, part of that time performing the duties of organist. Miss Field had not only been a faithful member of the choir but a very active worker in different departments of church work, and the object of this deputation was to show in a practical manner the appreciation with which these services were regarded. Accordingly Rev. J. H. H. Coleman proceeded to read an address referring to the regret felt at her resignation and acknowledging her efficient services to the church. At the proper moment Miss McCaughey and Miss Hoppe presented Miss Field with a very handsome gold watch of the latest make together with a jet chain and a very pretty gold ring set with garnets and pearls. On the watch case was inscribed Miss Field's name. Miss Field, to whom the whole company had been great gratification for the kind words of the address and the handsome gifts accompanying it. We give the address in full.
DEAR MISS FIELD.—Your resignation from St. Mark's Church, which, of course, we have all received, we, your fellow choir
members as well as friends in the congregation, desire you to accept this watch and ring as a mark of our esteem and good will as well as a slight recognition of the very valuable services you have rendered St. Mark's church and choir during the time you have been a member. While we shall miss you and regret that it has become necessary for you to leave us, we shall always remember you as one of the most regular attendants of our choir and wherever you may go we hope you will always cherish a happy remembrance of St. Mark's Church and choir.
Signed on behalf of the choir and congregation,
THOS. STANTON, Rector,
J. H. H. COLEMAN, Curate,
H. C. FOWLES, Choir Master.

DIED OF CANCER.
The Times, of Bay City, Michigan, thus refers to the death of a former resident of Deseronto who will be remembered by many of our readers:
Robert Charters, the well known lumber
inspector, died at his home on Eighth street.
He was 85 years of age and was a wife and seven children, the oldest being 11 years of age.
Mr. Charters was afflicted with cancer of the throat. Three months ago he went to Ann Arbor and was operated upon, but the disease had obtained too, a strong hold and
the ravages could not be checked. He has been confined to his bed since he was operated upon, during which period he endured terrible
suffering. One week ago a hemorrhage started and it was then thought the end was near. He has been checked but his friends
knew it was only a matter of time when the
disease would find its way into the jugular vein. The news of his death was therefore no surprise to those familiar with his condition.
Mr. Charters was one of the most popular
and capable lumber inspectors in the river,
and during the past few years he has been engaged in shipping on his own hook. He was a Mason and belonged to other fraternal
societies. He was a very successful business man and had accumulated a large sum
of money on his life aggregating $21,500, which,
in addition to a handsome residence erected
two years ago, leaves his family well provided for.
The funeral will be held under the auspices of the Masonic fraternity.

The Rev. F. T. Dibb, of Odesa, will be the preacher at the service of night (Friday).
This is the second sermon of the announced series on "Some popular objections and misconceptions regarding the church and her ways." The subject will be "The Church's alleged exclusiveness."
The Girl's Sewing Guild has been working
very vigorously on Saturday evenings and expects to accomplish good results. An entertainment will be conducted by the Guild on Tuesday, April 7th, the Tuesday after Easter,

Robert Charters, the well known lumber
inspector, died at his home on Eighth street.
seven children, the oldest being 11 years of
age.
Mr. Charters was afflicted with cancer of the throat. Three months ago he went to Ann Arbor and was operated upon, but the
disease had obtained too, a strong hold and
the ravages could not be checked. He has
been confined to his bed since he was operated upon, during which period he endured terrible
suffering. One week ago a hemorrhage
started and it was then thought the end was
disease would find its way into the jugular
vein. The news of his death was therefore
no surprise to those familiar with his condition.
Mr. Charters was one of the most popular
and capable lumber inspectors in the river,
and during the past few years he has been
engaged in shipping on his own hook. He was a Mason and belonged to other fraternal
societies. He was a very successful busi-
of money on his life aggregating $21,500, which,
in addition to a handsome residence erected
two years ago, leaves his family well provided for.
The funeral will be held under the auspices of the Masonic fraternity.

TO REDUCE COUNTY COUNCILLORS.
In the Legislature Hon. Mr. Hardy introduced a bill for the reduction of the number of County Councillors. This bill, he explained, was a substitute for the one of which he gave notice a week ago, and a draft of which appears in another column. This bill provides for the division of counties into districts, each district having power to elect a County Councillor. In counties with a population less than 40,000, twelve Councillors may be elected; counties with a population of 40,000
may elect fourteen members, and counties having a population of more than 40,000 may elect sixteen members. It would be necessary to appoint two boards of non-partisan commissioners, whose duty it shall be to arrange the divisions.

In Advanced Years

The strength and pure blood necessary to resist the effects of cold seasons are given by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"I have for the last 25 years of my life been complaining of a weakness of the lungs and colds in the head, especially in the winter. Last fall I was again attacked. Reading of Hood's Sarsaparilla I was led to try it. I am now taking the fifth bottle with good results. I can positively say that I have not spent a winter as free from coughs or pains and difficult breathing spells for the last 25 years as was last winter. I can lie down and sleep all night without any annoyance from cough or pain in the lungs or any other difficulty."

MALTINE WITH COD LIVER OIL AND HYPOPHOSPHITES.

Remarkable results have been obtained from the use of Maltine with Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites in cases of emaciation associated with bronchial irritation and cough. The efficacy of cod liver oil in a large class of affections has long been conceded, and combined as it is in this preparation with the hypophosphites, it affords a valuable stimulus to the nervous system, and with maltine (itself a food and reconstructive of the greatest value), its usefulness is greatly increased. Furthermore, by the action of maltine starch food is more easily digested and in larger quantities affording solid nourishment for the replacement of the waste of the body and for reconstructive purposes. If you are now getting cod liver oil or any of the emulsions of this great natural food, you will find for two weeks and observe the results. You will have gained both weight and strength, and relief from bronchial irritation, and the distress these occasion.

Paine's Celery Compound

Woman's Tower of Safety in the Spring Season.

IT HAS A MARVELLOUS RECORD

Cures When All Other Medicines Fail

The Home Friend of Half a Million Canadian Families.

The world has never heard of medicine so highly commended as Paine's Celery Compound. It has a world-wide reputation because it "makes people well."

Paine's Celery Compound is known as "Woman's Tower of Safety" because it cures all conditions that in Paine's Celery Compound a life-giver and a health-giver. It establishes that perfect condition of health that keeps the user far above any depressing influence of variable weather.

It feeds the great nervous system and keeps the blood pure and fresh. For weakness, prostration, nervousness, rheumatism, dyspepsia, indigestion, headache and neuralgia, this marvelous discovery of Prof. Paine has no equal. It always cures when other medicines prove useless, and to-day Paine's Celery Compound is the chosen medicine of half a million of Canadian homes. Miss Bridges of Montreal, says:

"I consider it a pleasure as well as a duty to put on record what Paine's Celery Compound has done for me. I suffered for years from indigestion, headache, pains in the back and side, and from a nervous, tired feeling. I used many patent medicines without any good results. I was also attended by one of the best doctors and used his medicines, but could not get better."

"I saw Paine's Celery Compound advertised, and decided to try a bottle. It gave me such good results that I used six bottles, and found myself altogether a new person. I have now used it for some time, and can say with pleasure that my troubles are banished; my nerves are strong, my sleep is good, and my appetite improved."

"I would heartily recommend Paine's Celery Compound to all who suffer as I did; they are sure and certain of good results."

NEARLY PERISHED IN THE STORM.

FLINTON, Feb. 15.—On Thursday last Mr. Joe, father and mother, aged 12 years, started from their home after a load of hay a distance of eight miles to what is called the "Indian Camp" marsh. On reaching the marsh, Mr. Joe found one of his horses sick and was therefore unable to take back any hay with him. He started home again and on reaching the shanty, where Mr. Joe's father took of his coat and covered her up while he would make his way to his neighbor Mr. Harvey Champagne, thinking he would be able to reach the little one with his horse. Mr. Joe was almost tired out when he left his little daughter and not having much use of his legs had to crawl on his hands and knees for about a mile, when he reached Mr. Champagne's house. On reaching the house he found Mr. Champagne not at home. He told Mrs. Champagne how he had left the little girl in the snow unable to go any further. She prepared herself for the journey, went to the barn and took one of the horses and started for the little girl. She had to go about a mile and a half when she came upon the little one in a most pitiful condition and after much difficulty succeeded in rescuing her home with the little girl barely in time to save her life.—Tweed News.

THE ROENTGEN RAYS.

NEW YORK, March 1.—A London correspondent cables (French discoveries are daily announced in the field first opened by Roentgen. That there is a possibility of enabling the human eye to see with ease concealed objects, was demonstrated on Thursday, at King's College, London. One of the experimenters there says: "Without the aid of photography, by the means of a simple fluorescent screen and a suitable lens, I could easily see all the bones in my hand and wrist clearly and sharply defined and the action of the joints. Metallic objects were readily seen through a solid block of wood 2 inches thick, such as used in paving streets. A sixpence, shut up between the pages of a book, was clearly visible. These results were produced by the aid of a new vacuum tube, designed and made in the college."

REDUCING COUNTY COUNCILS.

The bill for reducing the number of county councils was introduced by the Legislature, by Hon. Mr. Hardy. The act is divided into two parts. The first part deals with the submission of the question of reducing the number of County Councils in any county to the electors, and makes provision that in every county where the Council of the county is composed of more than twenty members, and in other counties where the Council is composed of twenty members or less, if the Council by resolution so directs the local municipal electors in the county, the question of whether they are favorable to the adoption of an act or opposed thereto. The first twenty-one sections of the act are devoted to the procedure upon taking the vote. Part of the act relates to the constitution of County Councils after the act goes into operation. Section 22 declares that County Councils shall, in counties containing not more than 40,000 inhabitants, be composed of nine members; in counties containing more than 40,000 and less than 60,000 or a greater number of thirteen members. Section 23 provides that nominations shall be made in writing, signed by at least twenty-five municipal electors in the county, and deposited with the Clerk on or before the 1st day of December. If one candidate is nominated, then the number of County Councilors they are elected in the county, notice is to be given by the County Clerk of the nominations made, and this notice is to be sent to the Clerk of each of the municipalities, together with voting papers in the form prescribed by the act. At a meeting of each local Municipal Council, held on the third Monday of January, the Reeve and Deputy Reeve are to fill up and sign the voting papers. Each Reeve or Deputy Reeve is to be entitled to one vote equal to the number of County Councilors to be elected, and may give all his votes to one candidate, or may distribute them as he thinks best. The vote of the municipality is to be transmitted to the Clerk of the county. At the meeting of the County Council, held on the third Monday of January, the Reeve and Deputy Reeve are to fill up and sign the voting papers. Each Reeve or Deputy Reeve is to be entitled to one vote equal to the number of County Councilors to be elected, and may give all his votes to one candidate, or may distribute them as he thinks best. The vote of the municipality is to be transmitted to the Clerk of the county.

An election will be held forthwith to fill the vacancy in the Sophiasburg township council caused by the lamented death of S. J. Dancy. Nominations will take place next Monday. There are several candidates already in the field.

The L'Original Advocate claims that the only persons now living who took part in the war of 1812 are E. Castelineau of Curran, Ontario, aged 106; J. Lalonde of St. Poly-carpe, 102 years of age; and A. Balthole of St. Bartholomew, 100 years.

An agitation has sprung up for a police office on Main street. There the chief could be located, complaints filed, and general information gained by the strangers and the public generally. Such a headquarters is a necessity in a town of this size.

There were 58 prisoners committed to Napanee goal house, 6 less than in 1894, the greatest number confined at one time was 9; the number of recommitments was 18. The total cost of maintenance was $1,466. The inspector recommends a modern system of heating the building.

Miss Jessie Mackie has accepted a position in the railway office at the dock.

The handsome watch and ring presented to Miss Field were purchased through G. E. Salter.

The formal opening of the new Oddfellows hall will probably take place about the middle of April.

Trains were greatly blocked last Monday in many parts of the province as a result of a severe winter.

M. D. Campbell, at one time connected with the Deseronto flour mill but of late years a partner in a milling firm in Oshawa, leaves that town for Woodstock to take charge of a larger concern in that city. The Oshawa newspapers speak well of Mr. Campbell as a citizen and a business man.

There were 24 prisoners committed to Pictou jail last year, 4 the greatest number confined at one time and there were 10 recommitments. The total cost of maintenance was $1,040. Ancient methods of heating and lighting are still in vogue. A surgeon should be appointed for the institution, says the inspector.

The Rome, Watertown and Ogdensburg Railway will run its tenth annual grand excursion to Washington on Tuesday, March 31st. The return fare is only ten dollars; sleeping car fares at low rates. Cheap side-trip excursions from Washington have been arranged. Tickets good to April 10th, inclusive. As in former years many will go from this district.

A case of some interest to farmers was tried at Glenora the other day. Edmund Stabone was engaged by a farmer of Elfrid names Jeffries for two years under a written agreement at a certain rate per month. Evidence of a subsequent verbal agreement making the wages payable yearly, was not allowed and judgment for the number of months served was given for the plaintiff.

The United States senate and house of representatives have passed resolutions recommending the President to acknowledge the Cuban rebels as belligerents. This action has aroused great hatred in Spain and at Barcelona a mob attacked the American consulate and trailed the flag of the United States in the dust. The independence of Cuba cannot much longer be denied.

The Lindsay Post states that last Friday night burglars, having smashed the window with an axe, gained access to the Rathbun Company's office in that town and broke open a desk. They stole 700c. from the cash drawer, although with a little more care they could have had two $5 bills which reposed under a piece of paper in one of the compartments. They also entered Salter, Dundas & Co's mill office. H. W. Cowdry, grain warehouse, and tried other places. They only secured small sums of change in each place. The police have a clue.

Miss Smith is making ample preparations for her approaching millinery opening. Her many patrons will find a large and well selected display and prices reasonable.

Miss Etta Brown has returned from the Toronto millinery openings and is now occupying her new shop on St. George street. Her stock of goods is arriving daily and will be ready for inspection forthwith.

Collections are now being taken up all over Christendom for the oppressed Armenians. Canada is doing its share in this charitable work. The TRIBUNE will be glad to receive and forward any offerings which may be sent in by residents of Deseronto or vicinity.

Sir Charles Tupper moved the second reading of the Manitoba Remedial Bill in the house of commons on Tuesday, Mr. Laurier moved the sixth month, and the debate is now in progress. Great interest is manifested in the proceedings and there is a great rush for the daily newspapers containing the debate. It is not yet known when the vote will be taken.

There is a movement afoot in England to improve educational facilities for the people. Germans are, on account of their better education, securing all the better business positions in England, thus crowding out residents of the country. Merchants and business men call for better educated employees and as a result more attention must be paid to the character of the schools.

Mrs. Martha A. Brown and Henry Rathbun, formerly of Peterborough, have been visiting at S. B. Bowen's, Napanee road, and with Mrs. Susan Hickley, North Frederickburg. Mr. Rathbun was in town yesterday. He is now settled on a farm in Ameliaburg, not far from Roblin's Mills, and is succeeding admirably. He is delighted with Ameliaburg and its people.

The Canadian Trade Review says that a movement is afoot in Wallaceburg to place a passenger and freight steamer on the route between that port and Montreal, calling at intermediate points such as Windsor, Hamilton, Toronto, Belleville, Deseronto, and Kingston. Responsible parties are promoting the scheme, which is believed to be the outcome of high freight rates on the railways.

It has been suggested that it would be a wise and charitable thing to bring out a number of the persecuted Armenians and settle them in our Canadian Northwest. The Imperial government should be asked to assist by placing one of their transports or warships at the disposal of our government in carrying the new immigrants across the seas. The Armenians are an industrious people who would make excellent settlers.

Open Meeting. Deseronto Council of Royal Templars held an open meeting last evening. S. Russell presided. Rev. R. Taylor delivered an able and eloquent address. A good programme was also discussed. More meetings of a similar character will follow.

Notice. The TRIBUNE is requested to deny a rumor which has been current about town to the effect that Court Deseronto, No. 93, is financially embarrassed. The affairs of the court are on a sound basis and all persons who may have bills against the court are asked to send the same in for payment to R. Rusk, Chief Ranger, or J. L. Ferguson, Treasurer.

The weather. The weather during the past week has been generally fair and pleasant. Last Friday was very much like spring the mercury rising to 45 in the shade and the sun's rays caused the snow to sink quite rapidly. Saturday cloudy and mild turning to rain at night. The wind veering caused a slight thaw and the trees presented a pleasing and beautiful spectacle for two days as a result. Clear and cold the rest of this week, yesterday morning the mercury falling slightly below the zero mark.

An Indian Battalion. At the meeting of the Indian council of Tyendinaga reserve, the project of the formation of an Indian battalion was approved, and it was agreed to furnish two companies of 50 men each. The battalion will be composed of ten companies with headquarters at the Grand River reserve near Brantford. The companies will be composed nearly all together of Six Nation warriors and if the Dominion government accedes to their request it will be one of the crack corps of the service.

Quiet Wedding. On Tuesday afternoon of last week James Stokes took folk by surprise by driving to Napanee where he was united in marriage with Mrs. Cora Simmons, also of Deseronto. Rev. W. A. Peck, pastor of the Presbyterian church, Napanee performed the ceremony. The happy couple have been receiving the congratulations of a large circle of friends. The Citizens Band, of which Mr. Stokes was at one time president and at times a staunch friend, serenaded the newly married pair on Friday evening and were hospitably entertained.

Distressing Apathy. It is painful to witness the apathy on the part of Kingston, Napanee, Deseronto, and other towns along the front in the matters of securing better railway connection with northern townships of Hastings, Addington, Peterborough, and portions of Renfrew and Haliburton. Quietly and yet steadily the trade of that country is being diverted to other and other places by the new lines of railway now being constructed or projected. A glance at the map would show that by a few extensions and connections the trade of that vast district so rich in mineral and other resources could be retained by Kingston and the towns mentioned. Government aid should be sought and other steps taken before it is too late.

Gun Club.

The members of the Deseronto Gun Club will hold a shooting contest in the Driving Park to-day. There are many first-class shots in this club.

Model Yacht Club.

The Deseronto Model Yacht Club has been organized with the following officers: S. J. Barrett, president; Harry Woodcock, vice-president; Walter McMaster, commodore; Fred Elliott, secretary; Wm. Cole, treasurer; Fred Lloyd, Martin Statton and John Baird, committee.

Salvation Army.

The local corps of the Salvation Army is preparing under the care of Capt. Stairs, who has made much popular work with the public. On Tuesday evening there was a large meeting visitors being present from Napanee. The Army was placed on trial and its merits argued pro con. in a most interesting and instructive manner.

Belleville Jail.

From the report of the inspector of prisons and charities we learn that during 1895 there were 161 prisoners committed to Belleville jail, 21 more than in 1894. The greatest number confined at any one time was 20; the number of recommitments was 20. The total cost of maintaining the jail was $2,315. The inspector recommends several repairs and a modern system of heating.

Great Credit Sale.

H. Vankoughnet, auctioneer, has been commissioned to sell by public auction, on Wednesday, March 18, at the residence of John Ford, 5th con. of Tyendinaga, a large number of cows, horses, young cattle, agricultural implements, together with a large quantity of seed corn and potatoes, etc., etc. The sale will commence at 12 o'clock noon. This will be a splendid opportunity to secure bargains. Terms are very reasonable.

Court Imperial, C. O. F.

Court Imperial in the title of the new court of the Canadian Order of Foresters now being instituted. At a recent meeting the following officers were elected:—W. J. Malley, C. R.; D. Armstrong, V. C. R.; G. A. Grant, Rec. Secy.; James Fairbairn, Treas.; David McClellan, Fin. Secy.; J. W. Dougherty, S. W.; W. P. Skeggs, J. W.; Dr. Simpson, Court Physician. There are twenty-five charter members, all energetic responsible citizens and the court sets out on a very healthy basis. E. N. Lowe, C. R., of Court Quinte, assisted at the institution of the new court which will meet in their lodge, McCullough Block, on the 1st and 3rd Tuesday of each month.

Interesting Debate.

The chief feature of the meeting of the Mission Band of the Presbyterian church held last Saturday afternoon, was a debate. The subject of discussion was, whether it were more beneficial to establish a hospital or a printing press at a mission station in a heathen land. Miss Aggie Anderson captained the hospital side of the question, while Miss Clemmie Mackie led the advocates of the printing press. The subject was debated by the members with great spirit and much ability and the discussion could not fail to be instructive. It was not easy to decide which had the better of the argument but Mr. Russell, who acted as arbiter, decided in favor of the advocates of the hospital.

Bethany Tea Meeting.

The tea meeting of Bethany church, Macdonald, was a great success, over fifty dollars were realized. About thirty people went over from Deseronto. A. A. Richardson, of Deseronto, was chairman and did his duties well. Addresses were delivered by Revs. Taylor, White and Snowdon. Mr. Palmer gave recitations and the local choir furnished excellent music. Rev. Mr. Snowdon and his people are much pleased with the result.

Tea Meeting at Lonsdale.

The congregation of the Methodist church, Lonsdale, will hold their annual tea meeting on the evening of Wednesday, March 11th. Tea will be served in Union Hall, at 6:30 o'clock, when the ladies of the congregation will maintain their reputation as skillful caterers. At eight o'clock, A. McFarlane, reeve of Tyendinaga, will take the chair and introduce an excellent musical and literary programme to which talent from Selby, Melrose and other places will contribute. During the evening addresses will be delivered by Rev. D. O. McArthur, of Melrose; Rev. R. Taylor, of Deseronto; Rev. John R. Butler, of Roblin; Rev. F. B. Stratton, president of the Bay of Quinte conference; Jas. Balcanquhall, members of the Township council, etc., etc. Admission only 25 cents. It is evident that a more than ordinary treat is to be enjoyed and with favorable weather the event should prove a great success.

Hay Bay Foresters.

The entertainment held at Sand Hill church by Court Hay Bay, I. O. F., on the evening of Tuesday, Feb. 25th, was a splendid success. The church was filled to very near its capacity with enthusiastic Foresters and their friends, many coming from distant parts of the district. The programme was of great merit and was greatly applauded. Rev. Robert McNeil, High Chief Ranger of Ontario, was present and delivered an address of such impressive eloquence that after the meeting twelve men handed in their names as candidates for initiation into the order. Rev. E. M. Wall, Stokes, D. S. C. R., of Court Deseronto, who accompanied the High Chief Ranger from Deseronto, also did no small part in making the entertainment a success. It is asserted that the aggressive attitude, the result of Leap Year, assumed by the young ladies of Hay Bay is responsible for the run to the lodge. The next meeting will be on Thursday evening following. Court Hay Bay promises to be one of the most successful rural courts in the order.

Capt. Frank McMaster is able to be out after several weeks illness, the result of grippe.

R. M. Jack is about again after a very severe encounter with la grippe.

Stating Carnival. Barnard's skating rink was the Mecca of the votaries of pleasure on Tuesday evening. The event was favored with beautiful weather though the ice was not in the very best of condition. It was evident from Manager Barnard's contented looks as he opened the door to THE TRIBUNE reporter that the attendance was large and the event a success, and he was therefore prepared for the dazzling display which met his vision as he gazed on the assembly of Deseronto's beauty and chivalry. The costumes, however, did not fulfil expectations, very few young ladies taking part in that respect. There were many grotesque costumes, and the new woman, Trilby, pack of cards, barber's pole, Cuban patriot, minstrel, and others were very good. Still in former years there have been much better costumes in Barnard's rink, and the young people showed a lack of spirit in not rising to the occasion. Possibly the manager may give them another chance before long.

WELL, that is all right, but I can tell you this much that a farmer's life is not all sunshine. ## PRETTY NIGHTGOWNS.

A woman who has a sewing machine can make her own underwear with comparatively little work and at less expense than she can purchase it ready made.

Nightgowns, especially, are satisfactory when made from a pattern proportioned to the figure. Cambré, dimity, Lonsdale, muslin, and fine cotton are all used for this purpose.

New shapes hang full from the shoulders, with the deep triangular V shape, and the neck finished in square tabs of open-work insertion and a wide frill of embroidery.

Dotted Swiss with a loop or guipure edge is used for trimming many gowns. These frills are soft and dainty, making an effective trimming at small expense.

Another pretty style of gown is made of muslin with a neck of pointed, back and front, having insertion of fine dimity and embroidery. Dotted Swiss outlines the points and dresses the neck. The sleeves are of three quarters length, finished with a deep frill that falls to the wrist.

Another pretty gown of muslin has a cape outlining the neck and falling over the shoulders. This cape is cut square at the back, and Vandyke points over the shoulders and front. Rows of insertion are set lengthwise into the cape, and a wide frill of embroidery is applied to the edge. Strips of insertion follow the front of the waist line, adding greatly to the beauty of the gown.

A more elaborate gown is of muslin, with the front made in bishop shape and drop just below the waist line. At either side of the full front the gown is shaped with rows of French insertion. The bands of linen lawn with dainty embroidery, reading:

The neck is outlined with a sailor collar made of linen lawn, with fine tucks running diagonally and alternating with ribbon bows, and is frilled with a French lace. The sleeves are of bishop shape and gathered into a band of insertion edged with lace.

A pretty nightgown that formed a part of a bridal outfit was made of a Watteau back, the front with a short bay yoke of guipure embroidery, finished with a narrow ribbon bow.

Outlining the yoke, and tapering to the waist, are wide ruffles of embroidery, to form the revers. The sleeves are full and gathered into a wide band of insertion, to which is attached a wide frill of guipure embroidery.

The Nutmeg.

Nearly every one is familiar with the appearance and taste of the nutmeg, which is so common as a spice. But all are not likewise familiar with its manner of growth.

The trees upon which nutmegs grow look like small palm trees, and generally are not over twenty feet high. The flowers are very much like the lily of the valley. They are pale and very fragrant. The nutmeg is the seed of the fruit, and the mace is the thin covering over the seed. The fruit is about the size of a peach. When it is ripe it breaks open and shows a little nut inside. The trees grow on the islands of Asia and tropical America. They bear fruit every year or eighty years, and have ripe fruit upon them all the season.

A tree in Jamaica has over four thousand nutmegs on it every year. The Dutch used to have all this nutmeg trade, and they owned the Banda Islands, and conquered all the trades and commerce of the world had the benefit.—The Household.

"Don't Grease the Griddle."

Hot pancakes are such universal favorites, and the family is so varied in all its branches, that every one knows how to mix the most approved ingredients, whether the substance be buckwheat, white, rice, Indian meal, or wheat flour. But how to bake them is the question, without filling the house with smoke and a heavy, greasy odor.

Do not grease the griddle. That's my way of cooking them. The griddle must be perfectly clean and smooth, and neither too hot nor too cool. When it is about right I wipe it off with a wet towel, then try one small cake. If it takes to a nice light brown, then I keep the griddle at that temperature until the meal is finished, moving it alternately to a cooler or warmer place on the range, as may be needed.

A Dainty Dinner.

I saw the prettiest pinner the other day and could imagine. It was sent as a Valentine gift last year, and was made of white paper, but it had a flat rim, and the crown was put on full, like a Tam O' Shanter.

Peeping out from beneath the full crown were some tiny blue forget-me-nots, while on the brim, written in gold ink, were the words, "where did you get that hat?"

Underneath the miniature hat were several layers of gold, pink, and blue, and use for the penwiper, but it is doubtful if its owner will ever have the heart to deface such a dainty Valentine.—Z.

A GATHERED VELVET BONNET.

How to Make It.

Flowers and feathers profusely trim the new spring bonnets, but with this liberty there is great taste and discretion in the arranging of them.

Velvet will go with ribbon in Persian and mother-of-pearl designs for popular use, but the richness of the first-named fabric ensures its retention as long as possible as an important factor in up-to-date millinery.

The bonnet I have selected for our lesson today is a most comfortable one, and will suit our more mature readers.

In Fig. 1 an outline of the shape is given, and this is covered with dark grey velvet. Half a yard will be required, and this must be cut to the shape illustrated in the next diagram.

Place indicated by the dots, and afterwards draw up the end of each gathering thread, being first secured by a stitch or two. This detail, of course, cannot be done until you have fitted the gathered crown piece onto the shape, and required the finished result.

This done, attach the velvet to the shape by tacking it round the raw edge, which are afterwards concealed by the blue piece of cherry-colored velvet, which is folded around the brim. For this fold you will require a quarter of a yard of velvet, cut on the bias, and there will be a short length to spare, but that cannot be helped, as the width is not sufficient to go round, silk velvet being only eighteen inches wide, as a rule.

The quarter of a yard we cut in two steps, join at the cross, turning in the edges, and lightly catching down with needle, taking great care that the stitches do not show through.

On either side of the front is a bunch of violets, which covers the stitches employed to catch the folds in the position they take in the sketch. More flowers are placed at the back, covering the join where strings and fold meet. In addition to the violets, however, there are on the left side two plumes and a white curled spray, and on the right two loops of the velvet made out of the piece I mentioned as being left over from the folded front. Ribbon velvet, pink or black, the latter for boys, should make the strings, and a quarter yards being purchased, as the bow is tied close to the chin, the ends being quite short.

The lining of this bonnet is accomplished in a different manner to that, and is

"JUST AS I AM."

Charlotte Elliott.

Charlotte Elliott was the daughter of a Yorkshire farmer, Charles Elliott, and was born in 1792. On the mother's side she was the granddaughter of Henry Venn, Wesley's friend and companion. She was a young girl and very educated, and to her was due the hymn "Just as I am."

This rendered falling heart in very early life, and she was a very devoted and earnest worshipper, and the best physicians told her that her future life was to be that of an invalid.

At length, however, she found rest. The thought of separation from scenes of gaiety, and of a life of seclusion and physical weakness, rendered her very sad.

As yet she had no saving trust in Christ. She was not reconciled to God. In 1822, through the influence of her friend, Rev. Dr. Malan, of Geneva, she was led to look to Jesus, and be saved. From that date a new life was open to her. The blessed Spirit had spoken through the saintly teacher; her weary soul was free, and in the thirty-third year of her life she rejoiced in the love of her Saviour. She had a fine musical ear and poetical taste. She was an excellent co-worker, and the great Wilberforce says she often greatly encouraged him. Though reconciled to God she was not yet ready to sing his love song, "Just as I am."

"I am a child of God, but I am also an invalid. I am thankful for the former, may I not also be thankful for the latter? The lesson of resignation is hard for me to learn, but are they impossible for me to master? I will now undertake the task."

After a few months of fighting and praying she said: "Oh, how many struggles, and apparently fruitless ones, it has cost me to be reconciled to my appointed lot of my heavenly Father. But the struggle is now over. His grace is sufficient for me. He knows, and He alone, what it is to suffer day and night, to fight against bodily feelings of almost overpowering weakness, languor and exhaustion, to resolve and not to yield to depression and inability, but to rise every day and follow one motto, 'If any man will my disciple let him take up his cross and follow me.'"

The first morning when she could say, "I am resigned to my lot," she took her pen and sketched the artless over-flowing of a simple heart in the beautiful hymn, "My God, my Father, while I stray."

She lived to be 82 years old. She died with these words on her lips, "Mine eyes shall behold in His beauty the King who has taught me to say and to sing 'Thy will be done.'"

The Rev. Henry Venn Elliott always considered this hymn of his sister's to have outshined in Christian value all his own efforts as a poet.

The son-in-law of the poet Wordsworth once wrote Miss Elliott, thanking her for his hymn and saying that it had afforded great comfort to his wife on her dying bed. "When I first read it," he states, "I am no sooner finished than she said, 'I have just sung that hymn, and it has been a great comfort to me.'"

At least, ten times that day she asked me to repeat it, and every morning from that day until the day of her death, some two months later, the first thing she asked for was her hymn. "Now my hymn," she would say, and she would often repeat it after me, line for line, in the day and night. Her last words were, "O, Lamb of God, I come, I come."

Dr. Malan did not attempt to unravel all entanglements. "Dear Charlotte," he said, "but the cable will take too long to untangle it; cut it. The winch blows away the great ocean is before you, the Spirit of God and eternity." She cut the cable "Waiting not"—and how many since have been able to follow her example—while singing as she gave utterance to her freed spirit.

An Extraordinary Case.

Another change has been rung on the old ball which jangles out of tune only in the case of married people. This one comes from a young man who was away last summer on his bridal tour. The newly-wedded couple had stopped for three or four days at a quiet spot, where they had a large park about it, and the regulations prohibited couples from sitting in this park after nightfall. The young man didn't like about this rule, and in the evening he and his bride, after a pleasant walk along the banks of the nearby river, strolled into the park and sat down. In a few minutes a watchman approached them.

"I am very sorry to disturb you," he said politely, "but it is against the rules for couples to sit in the park after 7 o'clock."

"But this is my wife," exclaimed the young man, "and she is with me."

The watchman felt back as if he had been hit with something.

"Well," he said in great doubt. "I don't know just what to do in such a case. I never had one like it before, but I guess I'll let you stay. The rules don't say anything about married people, and I suppose the folks that made them never thought anything like this would ever happen. Good evening," and the bride and groom were left to wonder.

Weight and Quality Unpaired.

A man at one of the hotels the other night told an interesting story of how his freighters in the far West used to supply themselves with whisky. He said that some years ago when all freight on the Pacific coast was by stage, and the stage was a very slow one, it was necessary to make a trip of several hundred miles with a train of wagons carrying men and horses, and provisions. Nearly every wagon contained one or more barrels of whisky.

"The first night out," he said, "I was very busy, and I didn't have time to get around the barrels. The wagons each had a hatch and a gimlet. They would knock up a hole in the barrel, draw all the whisky, and then they would put the barrel in the hole and put the hatch back in place."

"I learned afterwards that the barrels were weighed and the whisky tested before it was taken over to the freighters, and that when it arrived at its destination it was again weighed and tested. The gravel supplied the weight and bulk, and the quality remained the same, so this was why it was used instead of water to supply the place of what had been taken out—Louisville Courier Journal.

THE LITTLE QUEEN OF HOLLAND.

She Probably Enjoys Her Girl Subjects Their Unrestrained Freedom.

Arthur Warren contributes a very bright and interesting article, illustrated by "The Little Queen of Holland," in February Ladies' Home Journal. He presents this almost ideal girl sovereign in a graceful pen picture. Her daily life, her studies, her diversions, her toys, her pets, and her patriotically-inspired love of her subjects. Mr. Warren has sweetly pictured her in these words: "She is a bright-faced, blonde little lassie who passed her fifteenth birthday on August 31st, 1893. She is rather pretty and has a slender, graceful, young figure. She has her hair dressed in peasant costume of Zealand, and she looks for all the world like one of George Douglas's bright, cheerful Dutch maidens, except that her cheeks are not rosy. She has a very delicate, clear complexion; her hair is pale brown, and she has large, blue eyes. There is a delicious twinkle in them which suggests that the young girl has a fair share of humor. Her Christian name is Wilhelmina Helena Paulina Maria."

I suppose that if Wilhelmina I was asked to give some account of her life, she would say that she was born in a wonderful country where the peasants are all walking jewellers' shops, and where the land flows with canals and honey. For one thing, she played with her subjects. The Queen can be very fond, and as there is no bery of brothers and sisters in the family, the girl's life has so far been spent almost entirely among persons much older than herself. * * *

There is a genuine affection for her throughout the country, and she has good reason for this. She is a very lovable child. The sweetest of her nature shines out through her face. She has the most winsome smile that you could wish to see. She appears to be thoroughly, thoroughly, that is to say, as thoroughly as a girl of her years can appreciate such an exceptional condition as queenhood, and she is much more so. For all that she is delightfully considerate of others. Her servants worship her, Dutch children adore her, and everybody who comes into contact with her specially becomes very fond of her. * * *

TO HEAL MANKIND.

It is a healing medicine for all outward sores, ulcers, blisters, skin diseases, cancer, scrofulous sores, etc., that Burdock Blood Bitters has won some of its most signal victories over disease. In every case where it has been faithfully tried a clear, bright skin and sound whole flesh have resulted.

Here is what Miss Lillie Doyle, of Strader's Hill, Ont., says:

For three years I had a very bad breaking out all over my face and went to a doctor who gave me a bottle of medicine which I used for a week, but it did not help me. I then went to another doctor who gave me medicine, but as my face kept getting worse I asked him to change the medicine, which he did, but it also failed to do any good and he told me he could do no more for me.

About three months ago I got a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters and began using it; I soon found my face getting much better, so I got another bottle and used it, and in using the third bottle found my face completely cured. Several others have followed my advice to try B. B. B. have been cured of similar troubles.

The Quebec government says it has undertaken certain reforms and legislation, and intends to carry out all its pledges to the electorate before it again asks a renewal of public confidence.

MR. SHIPMAN, OF OWEN SOUND.—SEVEN YEARS' ACUTE SUFFERING—DIABETES CURED BY DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS.

OWEN SOUND, March 2, (Special). Mr. Shipman tells his story in the hope that he may benefit others, and says:—As the result of a tumble when a boy which injured my back, I have been troubled with weak kidneys all my life. For the past year I have been a great sufferer, growing worse until a friendly druggist advised me to use Dodd's Kidney Pills. I took a box of the pills, and in the evening he and his bride, after a pleasant walk along the banks of the nearby river, strolled into the park and sat down. In a few minutes a watchman approached them.

THE BROCKVILLE TRAGEDY.

ONE DEAD, TEN WOUNDED.

BROCKVILLE, Ont., March 9.—About noon today, Mr. Lapointe, a farmer, living about six miles from here, deliberately stood,
with a double-barrelled breech-loading gun, against the fence behind Mrs. Kate Murphy's store, on the corner of King and Peth streets, and shot at every living being in sight. As a result one man has given up his life, two more are supposed to be dying, and, at least, seven others are suffering from gunshot wounds. Peter Moore, was shot dead, and Chief Rose, probably, mortally wounded. The other wounded are Constable Tinsley, James Boyd and Robert McCormack, grocer. W. A. Johnston, cheese-buyer; F. A. and George Stagg, butchers; Thos. de Broux, groceryman; Samuel Kilborn, marblecutter, and Peter Hobbs, an Indian.

The tragedy is unparalleled in the history of Brockville, and, perhaps, in the Domi-
on, and one that savors more of the wild days in the west than of peaceful Ontario. It is, perhaps, needless to say that no such tragedy has ever before filled the pages of Brockville's history and business has been practically suspended by the excitement occasioned.

Lapointe walked into town this morning,
armed with a breech-loader, double-barrelled
gun, and he loaded it up on a cargo of whiskey. He has usually been known upon as of an unassuming mind, but ordinarily proved ineffective, except when, under the influence of liquor. When in this condition about a year ago, he raised a row at St.
Lawrence Hall here, and, on that occasion,
threatened to use a gun, which he carried.

He was a noted fox hunter and usually carried a shot gun on his trips about the country. His movements during the early part of the day are at present unknown. At all events, just a few minutes after the bell had rung for noon, he made his appearance on Peth street, walking towards King street. He carried a double-barrelled gun, and was accompanied by several who knew him. Some were heard to remark that Frank McStagg, Grocer, was with him, and that back his head, gave vent to several yells,
such as fox hunters often use in calling to their dogs, and then fired a couple of shots in the air. Continuing his way down towards King street, he was accosted, among others, by G. C. Cumming, of Lynn, who knew him well, and asked him what he was doing. Lapointe said, "Oh, just having some fun," and passed on. He went scarcely 100 feet beyond this point, until he reached Mrs. Murphy's grocery store, which is at the corner of King and Peth streets.

At this point there is a small billboard, which forms a jut in a wall. Here Lapointe stopped, and, with the view down the King street and sheltered from the rear by the jut in the wall, proceeded to start one of the most deliberate butcheries that has ever been chronicled. People were hurrying along on their way to dinner, and the first intimation given them, that a murderer was right at their elbow, came in the report of a shot gun. At the first report, Peter Moore, an elderly gardener, who happened to be on the corner, directly opposite, and in front of Boyd and Theissen's grocery, dropped to his tracks a dead man. Before the people could realize what had happened Chief Rose, who was on duty at the same corner, saw the King street, appeared at the same corner.
The instant he appeared Lapointe's action cracked, and the officer, clutching his gun with his left hand, staggered into the grocery with a wound in his neck and breast, which are likely to prove fatal.

The next victim to appear at the same spot was an elderly Indian named Peter Dickson. He went down with a charge of shot in the face and body, but managed to drag himself to the alleyway at Gilmour's store, just behind the corner, where he was out of harm's way, and from which he was subsequently removed to the general hospital.

numerous, and his face is literally full of blood, while his breast has a gaping wound. His condition is indeed, critical.
Constable Tinsley, who had been assisted to the Fire station after he was shot, and looked after by Dr. Irving, was removed to the General Hospital, where an examination of his wounds proved that although quite painful it is hoped that they will not be fatal. A telephone from the Hospital says that the probably constable is resting quite comfortably. The unfortunate Indian was also conveyed to the Hospital, as he is reported as feeling as easy as could be expected.

Lapointe, it is said, came to town on Saturday last, but sank out of sight till today, when he appeared, with his gun in his hand, near the corner of Peth street. He had evidently prepared well for the carnage, for, after shooting a least a dozen times, he had several cartridges left. An examination of one of the cartridges found on Lapointe showed it to be a No. 12 containing 31
grains of powder, and weighing 5 shot.

One of the exploded shells was also examined.
It was evidently unlike the loaded ones,
and there is no doubt, from the holes in the shattered windows of W. A. Johnston's office and the Wilkinson's residence, as well as other places, that some of the shells must have been loaded with buckshot. Messrs.
Jas. Gilmour and Mr. Johnston was sitting in the latter's office when a shower of shots came through the windows, alighting all about them. Mr. Wilkinson's family were also badly frightened by the shower of shot into an open window.

Mr. Hayes was sitting outside his shop when, with a whoop, Lapointe levelled his gun at him, and told him to get in or he would shoot him. Hayes rushed inside, and the shot rattled against the front of the building.

John Dwyer drove in from Elgin this morning. On the way he overtook Lapointe, carrying a gun. He talked with him for a few minutes, and made an examination of the gun. At that time he talked quite rationally, and was perfectly sober. The parties injured in the general fight, viz., Messrs. Boyd, McCormack, F.
Stagg, Grocer, Stagg, butchers, de Broux, Samuel Kilborn, and W. A. Johnston, are not supposed to be in a serious condition.

The Hayes' residence, some 30 yards distant from the spot where Lapointe attacked, was converted into a temporary refuge, and several who took refuge there positioned behind it, have cause to regret their timidity.

The prisoner Lapointe, being removed to the General Hospital under guard, was found to be badly wounded. It is thought that he will recover, and will be taken to jail
when he is fit. Miss Cole, daughter of Col.
Cole, assisted the physicians in caring for the wounded in the Fire station, which was converted into an emergency hospital.

The scene of the shooting was visited by large crowds during the day, who gathered around the spot where Lapointe was examined the windows in the neighborhood, which were badly shattered.

Mr. Hayes driving down Main street, returning to his store, during the excitement, and was warned not to approach the store, but disregarded the warning, with the result that he was shot in the neck and side of his face with leaden pellets. He was taken to the St. Vincent de Paul Hospital, where his wounds were dressed, and he is reported to be dangerously ill.

The coroner's inquest has been adjourned
for one week.

FARMING IN MANITOBA.

Our good friend W. J. Emerson, writes from his home, Westmore farm, Gladstone, Manitoba, last night, that he has secured a new his subscription. The following extracts from his letter will be of general interest to many of our readers: "The time of year has again come around to send you my subscription for the TIT-BITS. The years seem to fly past very quickly in my western life. The result of this is owing to the fact that this is the busiest country possible. This has been a very successful year for the people here,
the crops never were better, although the prices are not as satisfactory as might be wished.

We started a creamery here last spring.
A very satisfactory result was the result,
although we could not get it in operation till July last, owing to delay in getting the plant. We expect to get off this year about the 1st of May. It is known as 'The Gladstone Dairy Company.'

One advantage in farming here is that so much has been accomplished by men than in Ontario farms. An example of one of my neighbors with the help of one man,
this year, had 5400 bushels of wheat, 2800
bushels of oats, besides several hundred bushels of barley. For a few weeks in harvest he had two extra hands. So the main part of the work in connection with raising this amount of grain was performed by two men. His hired help will not exceed $300 beside their board. He will get at least 50¢ for his wheat. He has realized that for what he has sold, and will probably get more for the rest as he is storing for June prices. I don't know whether any of the farmers here must be better than that down there with the same force.

We are still enjoying the best of health.
This has been an unusually fine winter.
There have been but very few storms.
We have had a couple of thaws which we do not consider any advantage.
The weather keeps us so well informed on Deseronto and vicinity matters that I scarcely need to make any special inquiries.
We always feel a deep interest in Deseronto down here. Both Mrs. Emerson and myself want to be remembered to all kind friends.
We cannot soon forget their very kind words and the pleasant visit we had two years ago.

Wishing your excellent paper every prosperity.
Yours truly,
W. J. EMERSON.

DR. COLEMAN'S PASTE.

Upon receipt of price 25c, we will send,
post paid to any address, one box Dr. Coleman's Paste, for the cure of Scratches, Ac, in Horses, and positively guarantee from one to three boxes to cure any case if directions are followed.

WESTBROOK.

The late thaw has improved the roads.
N. J. Leonard is seriously ill, the result of an accident in crossing the ditch on route from Collin's Bay.

Edward Miller and Ralph Ferguson are slowly recovering from a severe attack of diphtheria.

Heavy cold or sort of la grippe is epidemic in the neighborhood.

We have had regular service here every Sunday, though the bad roads and weather kept the majority at home.

Wallace Bridge and family of Turin, N.Y., will be residents of the village this summer.

Edith Sandcock spent Tuesday last visiting friends on Factory street.

TYENONAGA RESERVE.

Messrs. Robertson and Nash, assessors, are at work in this part of the Township, which is a very good indication of spring.

Plans of deeds have lately arrived for distribution among a number of owners of property lately surrendered by the Indians to the Katchewan Company, and who will now become subjects of the Dominion.

La grippe has again become very prevalent on the Reserve and is accompanied with severe complications to some other team.

Nicholas Simons, our genial blacksmith,
having purchased a house from Abraham S.
Maracle near Shannonville, has moved the same, which now adjoins his shop at the head of the church lane. Three teams successfully dispatched the movement of the house a distance of about seven and a half miles from its former location to its present destination in less than a day. Michael Claus was the chief engineer on the occasion.

John Claus, Jr., who has been seriously ill for some time past, we are glad to learn is steadily improving.

GLENDORA.

C. Cole, Picton, is the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Martin.

H. C. Smith and Mrs. Smith returned on Friday.

We are glad to hear that Mr. Clement, the new miller, is giving general satisfaction.
Miss Carrie Green spent Saturday in Picton.

THE LAST SAD RITES.

The funeral of the late Sister Mary of the Cross took place from the House of Providence to the Roman Catholic cemetery Saturday. A very impressive service including the singing of a solemn requiem mass, was conducted in the chapel of the House of Providence, by Rev. Father Kehon, assisted by Father's O'Brien and Mahar. Rev.
Archdeacon Kelly was present, but Archbishop Cleary was prevented from attending.
The deceased sister was a member of the community for thirty-two—not twenty-three years, and in the world was known as Miss Elizabeth Keating. Her brother, who resided of the village, Mr. Haggard, attended the funeral.—Kingston Whig.

THE NEW MANAGER.

The Peterboro Examiner thus refers to the appointment of F. W. Taylor to the position of manager of the Bank of Montreal
at Deseronto:—"Mr. Taylor's transference to Deseronto, one of the most important business men in the Bank, is almost as important as Peterboro, is a decided promotion.
Mr. Taylor came here three years ago as an accountant and on Mr. Lewis' death, and he has so won the confidence of the directors that his promotion is a recognition of the excellent manner in which he has discharged his official duties. Mr. Taylor is said to be the youngest manager in the employ of the Bank. He will be much interested in business circles where he was held in high esteem and also in social circles where his genial affability made him a host of friends. While the best of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Taylor will regret their withdrawal from Peterboro they will deserve promotion which we understand gives him the distinction of being the youngest manager in the service of the bank of Montreal.

OVERWORK —INDUCED— Nervous Prostration

Complete Recovery by the Use of
Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"Some years ago, as a result of too much attention to business, my health failed. I became weak, nervous, was unable to look after my interests, and manifested all the symptoms of a decline. I took three boxes of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, began to improve at once, and gradually increased my weight from one hundred and twenty-five to two hundred pounds. Since then, and my family have used this medicine when needed, and we are all in the best of health, a fact which we attribute to Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I believe my children would have been fatigued today had it not been for Ayer's Sarsaparilla, of which preparation I cannot say too much."—H. O. HIRSON, Postmaster and Planter, Kinard's, S. C.

Castoria is Dr. Samuel Pitcher's prescription for Infants and Children. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. It is a harmless substitute for Paregoric, Drops, Soothing Syrup, and Castor Oil. It is Pleasant. Its guarantee is thirty years' use by Millions of Mothers. Castoria destroys Worms and allays feverishness. Castoria prevents vomiting Sour Curd, cures Diarrhoea and Wind Colic. Castoria relieves teething troubles, cures constipation and flatulency. Castoria assimilates the food, regulates the stomach and bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. Castoria is the Children's Panacea—the Mother's Friend.

Castoria.
"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."

Dr. G. C. Osmond,
Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their lives, even by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other harmful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

Dr. J. F. Kincaid,
Chicago, Ill.

THEORY AND PRACTICE.
Doctor (to brother physician)—Yes, sir, the sovereign remedy for all ills is fresh air and plenty of sleep. I don't let enough air into their houses. Well, I must hurry off; I'm on an errand.

UNSUCCESSFUL COACHING.
Mrs. Hayseed (in hotel dining-room)—"What a bright light those lamps give!"
Mr. Hayseed (whispering)—"Say gas-jets, Marrier (then) jump!"
Mrs. Hayseed (loudly)—"Yes, as I was saying, what a bright light those gas-jets give; guess they're fresh trimmed."

RARE KINDNESS.
Eminent Physician's Clerk—Shall I make out Mr. Youngblood's bill and send it to him?
Eminent Physician (a man with a soft heart)—Well, no, not yet. He seems to be in a somewhat better humor over the arrival of his wife, and I hate to intrude on his innocent joy.

TURKEY STUFFING.
City Boy—Do you like turkey stuffing?
Country Boy—Now! Nobody eats turkey stuffing.
City Boy—You don't know what it is.
Country Boy—It's the half a pound of corn that you stuff into its crop, after it's dead, to make it weigh heavier.

A WEARY EVENING.
Jinks (to old friend in theatre lobby)—I notice you come out after every act. You are not drinking, I hope?
Blinks—Oh, no; but it is rather tiresome inside. I came with my own sister this time.

His Particular Taste.
Landlady—How do you like your eggs?
Mr. Newboarder?
Newboarder—Fresh!

All our progress is an unfolding like the shell of a nut. You have first an instinct, then an opinion, then a knowledge, as the plant has root, and then a tree. Trust the instincts to the end, though you can render no reason—Emerson.

France is to have a new coinage. The model of the gold pieces by M. Chaplain is now ready and shows on the face a while the republic and the profile turns to the right, above it spreads an olive tree; while in the background appear the roofs of a French village on one side and a minaret on the other. The obverse represents the French cock crowing, the letters and figures representing the value of the coin being placed on either side of the legs.

SOME QUEER WAYS OF MAKING A LIVING.

A View from the Sea-Narrow Street-Sanitary Improvements Greatly Needed—The People Live.

The street life of Rome or Naples affords food for contemplation and thought. In the latter place especially the inhabitants live the life of the time out doors, and it is no wonder they express a lively preference for the fresh air and warm sunshine when it comes to make a change from the interior where they perform tasks of various kinds. Yet these dwellings, crowded and luxuriant compared to the "condoms" which prevailed in the old days, when the dread disease might be expected almost at any time, playing fearful havoc among the people.

The streets of Naples are different from the streets of any other city; they are about as disagreeable to survey as were the dirty, dingy thoroughfares in London around the Seven Dials, before modern progress and the sweeping advance of municipal reformers wiped out the picture but unattractive locality which had more points of interest for the artist and writer than for the advocate of clean streets and decent pavements.

From the standpoint of an American there is yet room for tremendous improvement in the outward aspect of "Napoli the lovely," and only a philosophical artistic imagination would pause in delight and admiration solely the beautiful view of the town.

If equal and other evidences of greatest poverty are pleasing, then one ought to have in political fashion about the city on the bay.

Inexpressible charming from the sea, only pleasure could bring the view from that sea pastes Capri and Ischia and is confronted with the panorama of the harbor with snowy mountains in the background, and narrow, winding streets and numerous islands, capes and bold promontories. Clustering villages rest amid orange groves and vineyards.

The spell of the magic waters falls upon the seafarer. From the distance one is disposed to acquiesce momentarily in the little fables of the sailors, who tell as a fact that here were the Phlegrean fields, the river with sands of gold, the fountain of Arctura and the wondrous music and honey of Minerva. Some of these thoughts take wing as one wanders through the narrow highways and byways, wondering how it was ever possible upon the public by his barium-like advance men who would blush before this evidence of native talent.

The gestures of the Neapolitans constitute a unique language by itself. Here, as in Rome, the hand is expressive. As outward wave of the hand, adieu; an inward, come a downward, look; the thumb pointed downward, look; to the lips, with

The ephophone has now been perfected, the tubes are of a diameter of 1 1/2 inches, numerous experiments, lasting over several years, have been required, in order to determine the best form, especially with reference to the sound of the tubes. Various refinements, such as in the construction and the material, have been made, but not improving the use, have been eliminated.

To illustrate the character of the trials which have been made with the ephophone, one was placed on the light house at the end of a long pier, and a whistle was blown at a distance of a mile and its direction indicated correctly, although the vessel was at a distance of a mile and its direction indicated correctly, although the vessel was at a distance of a mile and its direction indicated correctly.

The ephophone is probably one of the most important inventions of the day, as it is destined to become as much a part of a ship's equipment as the compass. The larger vessels will have two, and just as now there are distinctive lights, so there will be distinctive lights, so that in a fog not only can vessels avoid danger, but they can determine their location and get out of the harbor.

The ephophone will be able to detect the approach of a vessel, and the vessel will be able to detect the approach of a vessel, and the vessel will be able to detect the approach of a vessel.

The ephophone is the invention of Dr. E. M. Russell, a Toronto scientist, who has spent a number of years in perfecting it, and has been aided in the development by the greatest physicists of the day. The ephophone can be placed upon any vessel without alteration in the arrangement of the greatest physicists of the day.

It is not expensive; it adds practically nothing to the weight and it cannot get out of order, and as its efficiency has been proved by the greatest physicists of the day, it is destined to become as much a part of a ship's equipment as the compass.

HOW THE EOPHONE WORKS.

It Enables a Vessel to Navigate Safely in a Fog.

Possibly there is no greater terror among the many met with at sea than a fog. The boisterous of anchor boats and the clamor of the bells and whistles during a heavy fog in the harbor give some idea of this nightmare of the coast, but when a fog closes down upon a vessel, the most reckless captain proceeds with caution and the most prudent with the probability of collisions and wrecks due to fog has been seen and a great number of accidents have occurred.

PLANT DIET.

Some one has there originally described the means which he requires to enable one to invite a green plant to dinner.

The soup would be represented by water, the meat by the juice, the fat by carbonic acid and the dessert by ammonia.

There are green plants which contain no chlorophyll, as for instance, mushrooms, have quite a different method of obtaining their food from the soil and air, and from these lifeless matters they produce a simple food, a combination of affluence without attempting to do away with it, and there has been perfecting of a simple instrument, called the ephophone, by which the direction of the sound which a sound proceeds can be determined with absolute accuracy in fog or darkness.

The simplest description of the instrument is that it consists of two bell mouthed tubes, one at each end, connected by a central diaphragm. The sound receivers are connected to the two ears, and when pointed directly at a source of sound the note is made in each ear. When turned away the sound is heard in only one ear.

INVENTION OF THE LOCOMOTIVE WHISTLE.

When locomotives were first built and began to trundle their small loads up and down the rails, they fully constituted the railways of England, the public roads were, for the greater part, crossed at public crossings, and the great majority of the traveling of his approach except by blowing a horn.

By giving a long blast, this, as may be imagined, was a very effective and useful warning. One day in the year 1825, on the first of the origin of the locomotive, a train of the London and Birmingham railway crossed the railway track on one of the country roads with a great load of eggs and butter. The train was moving slowly, and the driver, seeing the train, stopped it and gave a long blast of his whistle.

Farmers have been taking advantage of the fine weather and good roads to do a great deal of transportation. A great deal of lumber has been drawn away from Deseronto during the past week for building purposes. The rush to the Deseronto flour mill still continues.

The British warship Penguin, while engaged in making deep sea soundings between Tonga and New Zealand, got bottom at 2155 fathoms. The deepest sounding ever before made was by the American warship Taconara off the northeast coast of Japan, when bottom was touched at 4655 fathoms.

Richard Carroll, formerly gardener for H. B. Rathbun and of late in the employ of the Rathbun Company at the general offices, leaves on Monday for Gloversville, New York, where he has his relatives. Richard was an efficient member of the Deseronto cricket club and very popular generally. His employees always found him faithful and capable.

Our thanks are due to Dennis Hanley, of Read, for copies of late newspapers of Johannesburg, Transvaal, which Mr. Hanley himself lately received from James Duggan a friend of his who went to South Africa about fifteen months ago. In view of recent events they contain a great deal of interesting reading.

THE TRIBUNE job office received a large order this week from London, Ont., for show posters and date lines. The company requiring them said that no where in the province had they been able to secure such satisfactory work in this line as that done in Deseronto. THE TRIBUNE has a fine equipment for this line of work.

W. H. Stafford's change of advertisement in this issue should be carefully perused by all our readers both in town and country. The terms of the district have found Mr. Stafford's shop a decided convenience, and all admit that his prices are exceedingly moderate, much below those of other towns in the Bay district. Read his advt.

Mrs. J. R. Booth left for Cape Vincent last Friday morning, having received a telegram on Thursday evening informing her of the death of her mother, Mrs. J. Rixen Trumpp, of that village. The deceased lady who had been ailing for some time, was sixty-two years of age and very justly held in high esteem by a large circle of friends.

In the main, the most influential people in Deseronto are, old. Queen Victoria is nearly seventy-seven, Lord Salisbury is sixty-five, Prince Hohenzollern is seventy-one, Count Galushchewsky, the new Austrian chancellor, is sixty-seven; Sig. Crispi, the late Italian premier, is seventy-seven; the pope and Mr. Gladstone are eighty-six; and Prince Bismarck is eighty-one.

By an order sent out by the Controller of Customs to the collectors at all the points throughout the Dominion regarding claims of a refund of duty paid on goods imported and found not to be according to order, application for permission to re-export same and for refund of the duty, will require hereafter to be made within one month of the date of entry.

In the schedule of fishery officers in the Dominion as revised to December 1895, given in the annual report of the department of Marine & Fisheries the following are the names of officers in this district and their jurisdictions:—W. P. Clark, Belleville, Bay of Quinte, from Mill Point to head waters of said bay in the township of Murray; Joseph Redmond, Jr., Picton, Lake Ontario, fronting on the county of Prince Edward; J. E. Sills, Napanee, Lake Ontario, counties of Lennox & Addington and upper part of Annapolis; R. R. Finkle, Bath, Lake Ontario, fronting Brantford township; J. E. Lennox & Addington, and lower part of Amherst Island; A. H. Crosby, Belleville, head of Bay of Quinte from Three Brothers Island, near Kingston, to Trenton. The last named is without salary.

PERSONALS.

Mrs. and Miss Oronhyatekha spent last week in Ottawa. Miss Huff left last Saturday for Watertown, N. Y., where she intends remaining for some time.

A. McFarlane, Reeve of Tyndinaga, was in town last Friday.

Harry Emerson, son of the late S. G. Emerson, of Tweed, has been quite ill of late.

W. Scott and Miss Nettie Scott, of Colborne, are visiting at L. Werden's, Edmond street.

Kingston Presbytery.

The regular quarterly meeting of the Presbytery of Kingston will be held in Cooke's church, Kingston, at 3 p. m. next Tuesday, 17th inst.

A Wrinkle for Fishermen.

According to "La Nature," earthworms may be used in any quantity without the labor of digging, by watering the ground with a solution of sulphate of copper of a strength of one per cent. This will bring the worms to the surface almost immediately. Soap suds are said to produce the same effect.

Albani at Belleville.

An excursion rate has been made on all railways to Belleville on March 24 to the great Albani concert for a fare and a third where eight or more leave on the 20th. The prices for concert are $1.00, $1.50, $2.00 & $2.50. The plan opened yesterday. Parties desiring seats may address: Thos. P. J. Power, mgr. of Opera House, Belleville.

The Weather.

The weather during the past week has been generally of a wintry complexion and but few traces of spring are yet manifest. On Friday and Saturday there was rain which turned to showers of snow. Sunday, Monday and Tuesday clear and frosty. Wednesday a cutting southeast wind caused people to shiver. Wednesday night furies of snow, falling up again yesterday.

The Red Barn.

A Holstein cow at the "Red Barn" of the Rathbun Company has been giving this week 7 1/2 lbs of milk per day, thus making a record. The highest herd record last year at this barn was 6 1/2 lbs. per day. This is indeed a wonderful record and it is needless to say that J. J. Keator, the farm superintendent, and his wife, Mrs. Keator, are well pleased with the cow. The cow is a Holstein bull calf from one of his best cows to "Hillander Rose, of Gilead.

They Cared Him.

David Bradshaw, who removes to Tweed last week, severed his connection with the door factory of the Rathbun Company last Friday. About six o'clock on that day his fellow workmen assembled and, through H. W. Woodall, presented him with a very handsome silver headed walking cane. Mr. Woodall also read a flattering address testifying to the great esteem entertained by all the hands in the factory for Mr. Bradshaw.

The point of the line was the only one suitable terms. Mr. Bradshaw was always held in highest esteem by his employers and fellow workmen.

Iceboat Races.

The race under the auspices of the Deseronto iceboat club took place on Wednesday. A brisk gale blew from the southeast and the ice was in fairly good condition. The prize was a silver cup kindly presented by Freeman Woodcock, who also acted as starter. The following entered craft for the event:—Wm. Hatch, Geo. Robin, W. Huff, W. M. Woodcock, F. Sherman, F. Pearson and T. Turney. The race was of a most exciting character the craft going with terrific speed. The course was from a schooner opposite the town to a buoy near the wreck of the Quinte, and then along the south shore to the mouth of Napanee River thence to starting point. The boats were started at 12 o'clock and the race was over in which completed the course, the former winning in 40 minutes. Robin's craft making the distance in 44 minutes. Frank Barnhart, Chas. Dryden and Doctor Leslie acted as judges.

Death of Rev. G. A. Anderson, M.A.

Rev. G. A. Anderson, M. A., a venerable missionary of Tyndinaga Reserve, died on the morning of Thursday, March 12th, at four o'clock, after an illness of about two weeks. He was seized with an attack of a gripple which in a few days was followed by paralysis. Dr. Newton was in constant attendance but it was evident from the first that there was no hope for recovery and though the patient evinced great interest in life, he continued to sink steadily until he passed away yesterday morning. He was unconscious during the greater part of the past week, but at times was fully conscious and recognized visitors to whom he expressed his gratitude for their kindness in calling on the many evidences of respect and affection shown to himself and family. Mrs. Anderson and his two daughters never left his bedside and his parishioners and other friends were most anxious in their attentions. Rev. Rural Dean Stanton, J. H. Coleman, T. Golden and F. T. Dill were most faithful in their attendance upon the dying clergyman. W. G. Egan, Indian agent, and the members of the Mohawk Council also showed a great deal of thoughtful kindness during the past week's illness. For all this kindness Mrs. Anderson and her daughters are extremely grateful.

The funeral will take place on Saturday, 14th inst., at two o'clock in the afternoon. Services will be held at Christ Church, after which the remains will be removed to the vault of the Deseronto cemetery. No doubt very many friends of the deceased will unite in paying the last tribute of respect to one so long a prominent resident of this district.

Rev. Gustavus Alexander Anderson was born at Drummond Island, Lake Huron, on the 5th of July, 1825, and was the fourth child of Capt. Thomas G. Anderson, visiting superintendent of Indian affairs for Canada, and payer of annuities. Capt. Anderson was the son of Samuel Anderson who, at the time of the American Revolution, received a commission in the King's Royal Regiment of New York, was wounded at Bunker Hill, and subsequently served under Sir John Johnson. After the war he settled in Cornwall, Upper Canada, where he held many important offices and died in 1832, at the venerable age of ninety-seven years. When his son Thomas was a child the father procured for him a commission as a cadet in his father's company, in the King's Royal Regiment. At the age of sixteen he became a clerk in the store of Thomas Markland, in Kingston, and five years after he left for North-west Ontario. He took a prominent part in the development of the north-west and subsequently became Indian agent, etc., and died at Port Hope on Feb. 16th, 1876, in the ninety-sixth year of his age. The father of the deceased was educated at Upper Canada College, Toronto, and at the Theological College, Colborne, taking his M. A. degree from Trinity College, Toronto. He was ordained as a minister of the Gospel in 1849 by the famous Bishop Strachan, of Toronto, by whom also he

While sailing on the bay during the progress of the races on Wednesday, Frank Barnhart lost the mast of his ice-boat the "Whirlwind."

Mr. Badgely, who was Reeve of Sophiasburg last year, was elected by acclamation to succeed the late Reeve, S. J. Doney, for the balance of this year.

The cars and passenger coaches of the Grand Trunk will be repainted. The color will be a dark mason and will be used uniformly for all rolling stock, engines included.

The Examiner states that "it is a rather remarkable coincidence that the letters F. and E. J. distinguish the initials letters of the names of the managers of the local branch of the Bank of Montreal at Peterboro. The names are F. T. Tait, F. J. Lewis, F. W. Taylor and F. J. Rogers.

A petition is in circulation asking the town council to amend the market by-law that all butchers and hucksters shall be compelled in future to pay twenty dollars a month before they can sell meat in town. It is understood, however, that this shall not apply to farmers who may be selling meat, pork, etc., raised by themselves.

THE TRIBUNE was very frequently indebted to the late Rev. G. A. Anderson for many interesting items more especially on matters connected with the early settlement of the Bay district and the first years of the history of Deseronto. He had a wonderfully retentive memory on such matters. A great many historical societies all over the continent were wont to communicate with him on such topics.

had been baptized. His first appointment was to Sault Ste. Marie and then in 1850 he was appointed to the charge of the Mohawk Mission of Tyndinaga. In 1870 he was transferred to Iroquois where he remained for three years. He was then appointed to the charge of the parish of St. James and while there he was selected for the position of chaplain of the Boys' Reformatory at that place. In 1885, on the retirement of Rural Dean Baker, Mr. Anderson was again appointed, at the request of the Indian council, to the charge of Tyndinaga Reserve, and continued to discharge the onerous duties of the position until the time of his death.

During the past two years it was evident that Mr. Anderson was unequal, owing to failing health, to the demands made upon him by the duties of his extensive parish. The death of his daughter Sophie last year was a great blow to him and the death of his son Gustavus, a few years ago, was also keenly felt and exercised a very depressing effect. He had practically decided for these and other reasons to resign the charge of the parish and the Indian council of the Reserve and the Indian department at Ottawa had just arranged for a retiring allowance when he was prostrated by the illness which thus caused him to die in harness.

In all matters pertaining to Indian affairs and the history of the Mohawk and other tribes Mr. Anderson was an acknowledged authority, and in former years readers of THE TRIBUNE were often favored with very interesting contributions from his pen on these subjects.

Mr. Anderson was the sole resident clergyman in this section in the early days of settlement, and he was a member of all the churches and societies of the district. He held the first service in the old schoolhouse at Mill Point in 1844. Hundreds of residents of the district belonging to all denominations were baptized and married by him. In times of affliction or death his kindly presence was always to be seen. His manner was most genial and he took a warm interest in all public affairs. He was a Conservative in politics and did good service for that party in many a campaign. He was also a member of the Loyal Orange Association and frequently preached to lodges of that body and took part in their public demonstrations. In fact he was one of the most conspicuous figures in the Bay district and his removal will be heard with regret by hosts of old friends and acquaintances all over the province.

Mr. Anderson was united in marriage on June 12th, 1850, with Miss Mary Clouston, daughter of William Clouston, of the Hull-on-Bay Company's service. They had seven children, three sons and four daughters. The survivors are two daughters, Mrs. Featherstonhaugh, and Miss Mary, are both at home at the parsonage. Two sisters survive him, viz. Mrs. F. H. Hove, of Toronto, and Mrs. H. B. Rowe, of Japan. To the family the sympathy of a very large circle of friends will go out in their great bereavement.

Superior Stock.

Yesterday William Snider, of Blessington, purchased from Mr. Keator of the Rathbun Company's farm a grade Ayshire bull calf. The dam of this calf gave 9,500 lbs. of milk in ten months, and the dam of the sire was one of the best cows in the large herd of Messrs. Morton & Sons.

Sudden Death.

A very painful death occurred yesterday, the victim being Mrs. Bryce, wife of Anthony Bryce, Fourth street. She had been complaining of a slight pain over her eye before dinner and said she would go up town and get something for it. Accordingly—accompanied by her eldest girl—she went up to Egan's drug store. Mr. Egan says she looked quite bright and happy when she entered the store, but she suddenly fell down and almost instantly expired, the cause of death being heart disease. Deceased who would be forty years of age on the 10th inst., was a native of "Canterville, Monroe Co., Pennsylvania, her maiden name being Mary Burdell. With her husband she came to Deseronto about four years ago. She is survived by her husband and three children, all girls, aged twelve, eight and two years respectively. The bereaved family will have all sympathy in this affliction. The funeral will take place Saturday morning at 10 o'clock to Deseronto cemetery. Religious services will be conducted at the house.

Learning that Mr. Luck's birth day occurred on Monday, the pupils of his department showed their regard for him by presenting him with a very handsome present accompanied by a suitable address.

Rural Dean Baker, of Bain, was in town yesterday.

Mr. Rogers, of the Bank of Montreal, will leave for Peterborough in about two weeks.

The Deseronto Carworks have received an order for four electric cars for the new Corn wall street railway.

LOST—A small silver cross; will the finder kindly leave it at The Tribune Office.

J. J. Vickers, formerly proprietor of the Vickers' Express Company, and at one time a member of the city council of Toronto, died on Wednesday. He was father of Mrs. McMurich, wife of Prof. J. P. McMurich, of Ann Arbor University, Mich.

Mr. Bryce, whose wife died so suddenly yesterday, had only returned a few days ago from the shanties in the North where he had been working. He drove past his house yesterday about three o'clock and his wife held up the baby to him at the window as he passed by. An hour after she was a corpse. She had only entered Mr. Bryce's drug store when she fell. Some men raised her up and she sighed twice. Dr. Vandervoort was immediately summoned, and in five minutes was on the spot, but he found life extinct.

Distressing Accident.
Mrs. Henry Bilester, St. George street, while paying a visit to her sister, Mrs. H. M. Deroche, in Napanee last week, slipped on an icy boardwalk and falling broke the bones of both wrists. She was alone at the time but succeeded in making her way unaided to her sister's residence, where the fractures were reduced. She was brought home to Deseronto the same evening. On the following evening Mr. Bilester had the misfortune to fall and seriously sprain his foot, and as a result of the accident has been confined to the house all week.

BANK CHANGES.

F. J. Rogers, Manager of the Bank of Montreal in this place, has been appointed manager of the branch at Peterborough, as successor to F. J. Lewis, who has, on account of ill health, been transferred to the head office at Montreal. F. W. Taylor, accountant of the Peterborough branch, who has for some time been acting as manager during the illness of Mr. Lewis, succeeds Mr. Rogers as manager of the Deseronto branch. Mr. Hergenon, of the Chicago branch, will become accountant at Peterborough. The removal of Mr. Rogers to the business men of Deseronto and the public generally, all of whom have found him a most obliging official. He had been only a short time manager of the branch of the Bank of Montreal at Almonte when he was transferred to Deseronto to take the charge of the new branch then being opened. The opening of a new branch always entails a great deal of care and heavy responsibility; but Mr. Rogers proved eminently equal to the situation, and in a short time had established most pleasant relations with the business public. Mr. Rogers not only attended closely to the business of the branch, but he also took a very hearty interest in all matters of public import which affected the welfare of the town, and in this respect was ever ready with helpful suggestions. That his abilities should be recognized by promotion to the management of such an important branch as Peterborough is, therefore, no matter of surprise, though it means a loss to Deseronto. Mrs. Rogers was very fond of manly sports, taking an interest in the cricket club, boating, bicycling, etc. She is dead. Mrs. Rogers will be missed in social circles. Mrs. Rogers took a deep interest in the work of St. Mark's Church, and by her counsel and active efforts did much to forward many departments of congregational work. She was also the founder and first president of the Ladies' Literary society started in the town two years ago. All will unite in wishing them and their family very much happiness in their new home.

Preserving Meat.

From Germany comes a novel method of preserving food. The idea is that the chief claim to the preserving process shall take place immediately after the killing of the cattle, and that in consequence a more digestible and nourishing quality of meat is obtained. In order to carry out these results a cap of mack, hermetically sealed and containing a solution of soda, is then placed on the head of the animal, which is then quickly killed by the Herro-quick of low pressure carbolic acid. As soon as the animal is dead the head is opened and the fluid is drawn out by means of a tube. The preserving fluid is then injected and remains in the flesh. This fluid is prepared of soda, sugar, cream of tartar, carbolic acid of magesia, and biphosphate of soda.

TURKISH EMPIRE.

PROMISES.

Officials Held Responsible for Armenian

Outrages Decorated by the Insulted Ruler

for What He Terms "Good Services."

The political outlook in the East has become more critical and complicated

every day. The Sultan seems to be defying the powers in bestowing decorations

for "good services," upon the Turkish officials who are held responsible for recent outrages in Armenia. The British Mediterranean fleet near the Dardanelles

is being strongly re-inforced. Italian warships are said to be ready to assist

those of Great Britain in an emergency and the division of the French fleet which envelopes the Levant during the winter

will start for those waters immediately

a month earlier than usual.

Every indication points to the fact that the affairs of Turkey are approaching a crisis, and it is significant that only two solutions of the difficulty are discussed

by the European press—the entire dis-memberment of Turkey or the deposition

of the Sultan. The Powers are now showing that they will no longer be hoodwinked by the Sultan's promises, which are never intended to be kept.

The final stage of the diplomatic pressure was reached when Germany, Austria and Italy, which had hitherto stood aloof,

joined the other powers in a menacing

note to the European press—the entire dis-

memberment of Turkey or the deposition

of the Sultan. The next step will undoubtedly be a conference of the representatives of the great Powers which will discuss the administration of Armenia, and the fate of the Turkish empire.

LAYING A CABLE.

A Difficult Undertaking and Still More Important Operations Done While the Patient is Fully Conscious.

The meeting of the Philadelphia County

Medical Society last night was rendered particularly interesting on account of the presentation of a paper by Dr. T. Parvin, of the new method of administering the

of surgical operations without the use of employing ether or chloroform.

The method suggested and practiced

by the well-known German surgeon, Schleich,

who, by its use, has been able to perform all the most difficult operations of surgery without the slightest pain to the patient, and without depriving him of any other way of his consciousness.

By the method of Schleich there are prepared three solutions of cocaine salt, in which are dissolved different quantities of muriate of cocaine and morphia.

The part to be operated upon is thoroughly cleaned with an antiseptic solution, and the surface brought to a low temperature

by a spray of chloride of ether. Into the area of the skin which is the general action, the special solution containing the cocaine and morphia is injected by means of a hypodermic syringe, numerous punctures being made in all directions.

This renders the deeper structures insensible to the surgeon's knife, and for a period of twenty minutes to half an hour the patient is not conscious, so far as actual pain is concerned, of extensive cutting and sewing.

The new method differs in an important degree from the former employment of hypodermic injections of cocaine. The strength of the drug which has been used in the past is about one part in each of the solutions, while in the new method

the strength of the drug is often employed at only one part in 10,000. In the new method only a few drops of the solution are employed, while in the latter the tissues surrounding the part to be operated upon are thoroughly infiltrated with the solution, and a considerable quantity of cocaine employed by Dr.

Schleich, it is apparent that something more than the cocaine is responsible for the local anesthesia so perfectly obtained.

In the opinion of Drs. Keen, Ashurst and Morton, who discussed the merits of the new system of anesthesia, the tissues

with the solution and the distention and consequent pressure upon the small nerves

are responsible in a large measure for the absence of pain when the incision by the knife is made.

To indicate the manner of employing the method of Schleich, and to show the entire absence of pain, one of the surgeons had the solution inserted beneath the skin of the arm and an incision made and sewed up before the society last evening.

In the case of the patient, who generally, from the results achieved by the German surgeon and the experiments

made in a number of cases in this city,

that a decided advance had been made in the field of anesthetics, and that for a large number of operations the infiltration method could entirely supersede the general anesthesia by ether and chloroform.—Philadelphia Record.

SCHOOLING OF PARIS.

For the smallest children there are what are called "nursery schools." These are like our kindergarten. Attendance is compulsory but is free. From 50,000 to 60,000 little pupils attend these.

The abrupt transition from the tender guidance of the mother to the rigid discipline of the primary schools is bridged over by the infant schools.

These are for timid, sensitive children, and are attended from six to eight years.

One hundred and fifty physicians visit

all of the schools regularly and frequently. The children of the best of the city are sent to these schools, and the children of the poor are sent to these

NAPANE ROAD.

Spring would be a welcome visitor to a large number of farmers in this province, as fodder is very scarce.

On account of the roads being full of pitch holes nearly all the driving from Deseronto to Napane is on the river.

share of our neighbors, a victim that is not very much appreciated.

The Rev. Mr. Coleman has kindly consented to act in the capacity of missionary for the Reserve until such time as another minister is appointed.

Chief Wm. How has about completed the hauling of his wood and will have in the neighborhood of two hundred loads.

The remains of our much lamented and respected missionary were deposited in the vault of the Deseronto cemetery on Saturday last, the funeral being one of the largest that has ever been held in this parish.

There were fully one hundred rigs in line. In his death the Mohawks have lost a friend whom it will be difficult to replace. It will be difficult to find one who will be so well adapted to the work of missionary to the Indians as the Rev. Mr.
Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Creeper were visiting friends at Solmesville recently.

Mrs. Mable Graham, of Belleville, is the guest of her cousin, Miss Ada Earle.

Mrs. Eva Carrellen, of Belleville, is with her aunt Mrs. R. F. Pegan.

Mrs. Emma Delong, of Pictou, who has been the guest of her sister Mrs. K. Peasall, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Hickson, of Coneseon were visiting friends here this week.

Property is changing owners in our village.
Mr. Will McMichael has sold his house to Mr. A. McDonald and Mr. Rhoadman has disposed of his home to E. W. Rathbun.

Mrs. D. McMichael is undergoing treatment at the Hospital, Belleville.

Rev. D. O. McArthur will deliver an address in the Presbyterian church, on Thursday evening 26th on the Remedial School Bill.

Since writing last, two deaths have occurred
in our midst, the first being Edward Giddens, who died after a few weeks illness, at the home of his father Mr. John Giddens, and the other Mr. Andrew Hickerson, and old resident of this village, who died after a week's illness; both families were held in the Methodist Church and largely attended. Much sympathy is extended to the friends of both.

the C. T. R. is at present in possession of the line previous to the change that will be made in the train despatching system. The change, if adopted, would be the introduction of the standard code of American signals which defines the right of way train shall have. In this connection it might be mentioned that the C. T. R. system is thoroughly re-organized by the G. T. R. system.
It is expected general manager Hays will

FOUND DEAD ON C. A. R.

On Friday morning of last week the section men on the Canada Atlantic Railway at Clearville, made a ghastly discovery. Jammed in the beams of the bridge near the village, the mangled remains of a man was found, the head having been crushed and portions scattered in all directions.

The body hung down between the beams and had become stiff and jammed so tight as to cause difficulty in removing it, the man evidently had been dead some hours. At the inquest held later in the day it was shown that deceased was named Quenneville,
he had been employed in the woods near the village for some time past. It is supposed that he was struck by a train during the previous evening, and by the marks on the track the body had evidently been dragged some distance by the train. He was seventy years of age and is supposed to have been a little deaf.

TURNING GRAY AND THINNING WITH BALDNESS

The Danger is Averted by Using

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR

"Nearly forty years ago, after some weeks of sickness, my hair turned gray and began falling out so rapidly that I was obliged to use immediate baldness. Hearing Ayer's Hair Vigor highly spoken of, I commenced using this preparation."

"I commenced using this preparation, and was so well satisfied with the result that I have never tried any other kind of dressing. It stopped the hair from falling out, stimulated a new growth of hair, and kept the scalp free from dandruff. Only an occasional application is now needed to keep my hair of good natural color. I never hesitate to recommend any of Ayer's medicines to my friends."—Mrs. H. M. HARRIS, Ayer, Neb.

LOCAL ITEMS.

To-morrow is the date of the vernal equinox.

There are sixteen men and four women in the county jail.

Barrie will become a city by the incorporation of Annandale.

Now for episcopal gales and other blustery evidences of departing winter.

George E. Deseronto has been appointed solicitor for the Bank of Montreal at Deseronto.

Large quantities of logs, wood and lumber continue to come in over the Bay of Quinte Railway.

Conductors on all the trains in this district were shamrock and other favors on St. Patrick's day.

There are many new announcements in our advertising columns this week. Study them carefully.

Work has been commenced on the new office on Main street to be occupied by Dr. Dalmage, dentist.

Revs. Crossley and Hunter, the well known evangelists, have been holding successful meetings in Bermuda.

Rev. G. A. Anderson was the first clergyman removed by death while holding the incumbency of Tyndinagang Reserve.

Commissioner Harvey and staff have been busy opening the water-courses along the streets to carry off the spring freshets.

At Belleville market last Saturday eggs and butter dropped in price, the former selling at 14c to 16c, and the latter 15c to 18c.

P. J. Wines very kindly remembered us on St. Patrick's day by presenting us with some genuine shamrock just received from friends in Sligo, Ireland.

Charles Scott now manipulates an act exact in the band at Rockwood asylum. His phenomenal ability is greatly appreciated in that institution.

A great many fine sticks of white oak, several of mammoth dimensions, have been hauled in of late from Tyndinagang for the Deseronto shipyard, etc., etc.

Farmers of the district will find interesting reading in the advertisement of the Rathbun Company's agency, Napanee, of which Byard Young is the popular manager.

The fair sex are in a state of excitement over the approaching millinery openings. The different milliners in town are making even more elaborate arrangements than usual for these events.

Mexico has increased her population by 300,000 during the past four years. The educational system of the country is improving and on the whole the people are enjoying a period of great prosperity.

At the meeting of the Kingston presbytery last week, Mrs. D. O. McArthur, of Melrose, was appointed to represent the society at the general provincial convention which will be held in Peterboro next month.

John C. Lighthouse, of Rochester, N. Y., a well known inventor and manufacturer, has invented and patented a leather bicycle tire, which, he claims, will be an improvement upon the present rubber tire, and can be placed upon the market at two dollars per tire.

No town can hope to hold its own or extend its trade in these days unless its business men advertise. This is a fine quo non to the business of any community. Isolation is the result of an opposite policy. The towns of the Bay of Quinte district, with one or two exceptions, are far behind other towns of the province in this respect.

A great many friends in Deseronto unite with THE TRIBUNE in congratulating J. W. London, of the Belleville Intelligencer, on his election to the office of Supreme Grand President of the Sons of England. There is no doubt that he will perform the responsible duties of the office to the entire satisfaction of the members of the order.

The Prince Edward Agricultural Society will hold its annual fair at Pictou on Oct. 7. The Society becomes a member of the American trolley association this year. The sum of $325 was voted for purposes of the Queen's birthday, and $375 was placed at the disposal of the committee on sports for the same date. The Governor-General will be asked to attend the fall fair.

The Eganville Star comes to the front with a big tree story now. It was of the pine variety, and was cut in MacLachlin Bros' camp at Hay Lake, and produced six sawlogs. The dimensions were: Total length 60 feet, average diameter 24.57 inches, average butt, board measure, each log 800 feet, total butt, b. m., 5301 feet, total standards 24,70, 217 feet to a standard. What does T. Butler or Edward Wilson think of that vegetable!

E. A. Sanford, of Madoc township, died, aged 74.

Miss Smith holds her spring millinery, opening to-morrow.

Mr. J. Walker drove a party of ladies to Pictou on Wednesday.

The spring opening at Dalton's millinery rooms commences to-morrow.

James Howard had his hand crushed the other day, a large trunk having fallen upon it.

Mrs. R. P. Yerec, of Pictou, died suddenly while visiting her sister in Belleville.

Repairs on the steamer Nile injured by the collision last fall are now very nearly completed.

A large party will go from Deseronto to Belleville next Tuesday evening to hear Madame Albani.

L. H. Bennett will move into Mrs. Robert Taylor's house on Thomas street about the end of the month.

Edward Gault fell off the Big Store sleigh the other day and a gash on his chin was the result of the mishap.

All departments of the Cedar mill are now in motion. Some new features have been added in order to expedite work.

Mrs. Peter Hicks, of the 7th concession of Tyndinagang died on Feb. 21st. She is survived by her husband who is now very feeble.

Superintendent Tist will commence forthwith to fit out the fleet of the Deseronto Navigation Company for the summer's service.

Bishop Hamilton, of Niagara, was elected bishop of the new diocese of Ottawa on Wednesday. It is not yet known whether he will accept.

General Manager Hayes of the Grand Trunk passed Deseronto, Junction on Wednesday on a special which was running along at a speed of seventy miles an hour.

The citizens of Ganagoque presented J. F. Chapman with a silver tea service last Saturday evening. The railway employee presented him with a mantle clock at the same time.

The sale of farm implements and stock at John Ford's 5th con. of Tyndinagang, took place on Wednesday. H. Vakonaghet was auctioneer and it is needless to state that everything passed off very satisfactorily.

The members of Deseronto Lodge, I. O. O. F., are busy preparing for the approaching dedication of their handsome new hall. It is thought that several churches of the grand lodge will be present on this important occasion.

The Grand Orange Lodge of Eastern Ontario has been in session at Norwood this week. Strong resolutions were passed expressing disapproval of the Remedial Bill. J. W. Bell, of Deseronto, was elected grand master.

Mrs. Abiram Hopkin, of Kingston, died yesterday. The news was heard with much regret in Deseronto. "Agreet many Deseronto friends will unite with THE TRIBUNE in extending sympathy to the bereaved husband and family.

A leap year party of about twenty couples drove up from Napanee on Wednesday evening and spent the evening at the Queen's hotel. Mr. Lowrey provided a midnight supper for the party who expressed themselves as more than pleased with all the arrangements.

The British government have decided to send an expedition up the Nile for the alleged object of checking an advance by the forces of the Mahdi. It is thought, however, that it is really intended as a diversion in favor of the Italians in their campaign against Abyssinia.

Mr. Lowrey, of the Queen's hotel, honored St. Patrick's day by providing his guests with a very elaborate dinner. A special menu card with appropriate colored designs had been printed for the occasion. His many guests that day assure THE TRIBUNE that they fully appreciated Mr. Lowrey's thoughtful efforts.

A large oak tree was recently cut down on the farm of Jacob Tice, Ameliasburg, which measured two feet and a half in circumference. A piece of bolt metal was found embedded about eight inches in the wood which was perfectly solid. It is thought it must have been there one hundred years.

A new electric car for the Oshawa Railway Company is well under way at the Deseronto car works. Mr. Tist has introduced some new features in its construction which will be a decided improvement. Work has also been commenced on the four new cars for the Cornwall street railway, which will follow the same design.

E. W. Scott has recently imported a car load of wall paper and the samples which he exhibits show that he has exercised a wise discrimination. There is everything to suit the taste and the pocket of all classes, and housekeepers should give him a call. Mr. Scott is also agent for the best makes of bicycles in the market. If you want to purchase a wheel give him a call.

Kingston and her newspapers copied an article which appeared recently in an American scientific journal, stating that Deseronto is illuminated by gas manufactured from sawdust. This is a piece of ancient history. Ten or twelve years ago an attempt which was partially successful, was made to produce gas from sawdust, but the mechanical difficulties were too great and a new German process for producing gas from wood chips was adopted. The experiment for its production from sawdust was expensive and interesting, and the results were after all beneficial, as the present chemical works and allied industries of the Rathbun Company largely owe their origin to that venture.

Bethany Church.

Rev. Dr. McDiarmid is expected to preach a missionary sermon in the Bethany church, across the Bay, on Sunday, 22nd inst., at 2:30 p. m. Collection and subscription for missions.

Political.

It is rumored that a convention will be held, a few weeks hence, for the purpose of nominating an independent candidate to contest East Hastings for the commons at the approaching elections.

Parlor Social.

Mrs. A. A. Richardson, Thomas street, will give a parlor social next Tuesday evening, 26th inst. Cake and coffee will be served and a good programme given. Don't miss it. Admission 15c or 25c a couple.

Hockey Match.

There was a big attendance at Barnhart's skating rink last Friday evening to witness an exciting match between the Napanee and Deseronto hockey clubs. The visitors were successful by a score of three to one.

Tyndinagang Parish.

Rev. J. H. B. Coleman, of St. Mark's, conducted the service in Christ Church, Tyndinagang Reserve, last Sunday morning. He will conduct the service there next Sunday, Rev. Thos. Golden, of Shannonville, taking the service in All Saints church in the afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Large Yield of Milk.

The best weekly record of flow of milk from any one cow in the Rathbun Company's herd last week was 435 lbs. For the week just ended we have a record of 474 lbs, which beats anything ever done in the history of the stables. Such records as these are very interesting and a great many of our best farmers are visiting the barns this winter and enquiring into the system of feeding.

The Weather.

The weather during the past week continued generally clear and fine. The mercury fell nearly four degrees below zero last Friday morning and the night following were generally decidedly cool for this season of the year. There were higher temperatures of Tuesday and Wednesday and the rays of the sun out down the snow and ice on the streets of the town very rapidly. Yesterday morning snow followed and continued off and on during the day.

Hay Bay Methodist Church.

A meeting of the congregation of the church at Hay Bay was held on Tuesday evening, Rev. T. Snowden in the chair. A full and complete statement of the finances of the church was produced by the auditors, and everything found in excellent condition.

In the course of another year the entire debt will be liquidated on this beautiful church property. A very hearty vote of thanks was accorded the auditors, Messrs. Jaynes, Chas. Parket, F. Hogart, and to A. C. Parks, the secretary-treasurer.

In Memoriam.

At the morning service in Trinity Church, Shannonville, on Sunday 15th inst., Rev. T. Golden, B. A., the incumbent, made a few appropriate and feeling remarks on the life and death of the old missionary of the reserve. Almost the last ministerial work of the Rev. G. A. Anderson, M. A., was the holding of a missionary meeting in Shannonville church, in which he was ably assisted by Chief Sampson Green. The service last Sunday closed with singing hymn 463, called "Heaven's all kneeling," "When thy saints in glory reign, Free from sorrow, free from pain."

"At Home."

Dainty invitations have been issued for "at home" to be given by the members of Court Deseronto, No. 33, Independent Order of Foresters, in their hall, Colp's block, on the evening of Monday, March 30th. Like everything under the auspices of this flourishing court it will be a very pleasant event. Addresses will be delivered by Dr. Oronbyetkha, Supreme Chief Ranger; Rev. R. McNair, H. C. R. and Rev. W. B. Carey, P. C. H. R. Denmark's orchestra will furnish the very best music in their repertoire. Refreshments will be served. The following are the members of the committee in charge: E. M. Walbridge, Jas. Stokes, Wilson Wales, and George Spinks, Secretary.

Funeral of Rev. G. A. Anderson.

The funeral of the late Rev. G. A. Anderson took place last Saturday afternoon. There was a very large attendance, people being present from all parts of the district. The remains were removed to Christ Church, the following clergymen acting as pall bearers: Revs. Thos. Golden, F. T. Dibb, F. D. Woodcock, J. Creggan, D. F. Bogart and A. G. Westmacott. The church was crowded in every part and the impressive service was listened to with devout attention by all present. The service was conducted by Rural Dean Stanton, assisted by Rural Dean Baker, Rev. E. Lowrey and Rev. J. A. Taylor. There were also present Revs. B. H. Coleman, and H. Blacklock. The musical portion of the service was rendered by the choir of Christ church, assisted by the choir of St. Mark's, Deseronto. Mrs. J. H. Coleman acting as organist. The remains were then removed from the church to be conveyed to the vault of the Deseronto cemetery, over one hundred rising graves in the long procession.

The pall bearers were: Mrs. Foster-Stanbaugh and Miss Anderson, daughters of deceased; Heber Featherstonehaugh, grandson; and Joseph and Dixon Clouston, brothers-in-law of the deceased clergyman. The floral offerings were very rich and beautiful. The procession as it proceeded along the streets of Deseronto was watched by a great number of spectators.

Shiloh's Cure is sold on a guarantee. It cures all kinds of Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Croup, etc. Only one cent a dose, 25c, 50c, and $1.00. W. G. Egar's.

PERSONALS.

R. C. Cuthson spent Sunday in Belleville. Rev. W. S. McTavish, B. D., attended the meeting of the Kingston Presbytery this week.

Rev. D. G. McPhail, of Pictou, passed through Deseronto on Tuesday on his way to Kingston.

Charles Kerr, of Chicago, Ill., was visiting in town this week as the guest of his sister, Mrs. A. G. Knight.

Miss Smith was home in Napanee this week for a few days on account of illness.

William McKee was the victim of a very painful and serious accident on Wednesday. He had brought in a large stick of timber from the farm to be planed at the car works. With other men he was hoisting it into a wagon by means of a purchase gear. When the horses started up the chain had not cleared the wagon and the box and log upset and Mr. McKee was crushed by it. He was severely bruised and he sustained a compound fracture of the hip bone. Dr. Newton, assisted by Dr. Vandervoort, reduced the fracture, but it will be a long time before the patient will be about. He and his family have the sympathy of all in this misfortune.

Lonelate Tea Meeting.

The Methodist congregation of Lonelate held their annual tea meeting on Wednesday evening, 13th inst. Though the weather was very stormy there was a large attendance and the event was of a most pleasant character. Reeve McFarlane presided. Tea was served on a very sumptuous scale and the universal verdict was that the ladies had excelled themselves by the spread which they made for this occasion. The musical programme in which Mrs. Stratton assisted was very good. Mrs. Stratton also gave two readings in capital style. Revs. R. Taylor, of Deseronto, and D. O. McArthur, of Melrose, gave able addresses. The proceeds netted $32 and Rev. H. C. Garbutt and his congregation are well pleased with the result.

METHODIST CHURCH.

Large and attentive congregations attended the services last Sunday, and a spirit of liberality was manifested. The pastor asked for a loose collection of $15 and $18.75 was placed on the plates.

The Sabbath school also had a very large number of scholars and the attendance was in the absence of the superintendent the pastor officiated.

This (Friday) evening the Junior League will hold an opening session commencing at 7:30 o'clock. A collection will be taken during the evening. Everybody is invited.

Next Sunday the Rev. Dr. McDiarmid of Napanee will preach Missionary sermons, when collections and subscriptions will be taken in aid of the Missionary funds of the Methodist church.

Don't forget the parlor social at Mrs. A. A. Richardson's next Tuesday evening.

ST. MARK'S CHURCH NOTES.

There will be service this evening at 7:30. The sermon will be preached by the Rev. F. D. Woodcock, of the parish of Camden. He will speak on the subject "Conformation," a study of the most important both to those who have been conformed and to those who have not, as yet, received the sacrament of Holy Communion. The Curate preaches this evening in Napanee.

The services next week will be on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday at 4:30 on Wednesday and Friday at 7:30. Next Wednesday and Friday at 7:30 will be the festival of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, commemorating the visit of the angel Gabriel to the mother of our Lord.

Next Sunday, the fifth Sunday in Lent, is called Passion Sunday. In the evening will be preached the last of the series of sermons on "Instances of Repentance True and False."

The choir is preparing some excellent music for Easter.

CHURCH OF THE REDEEMER.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was observed last Sunday morning. There was a large attendance of members, including many new communicants. The pastor preached a very large congregation in the evening.

The Ladies' Missionary Society held a very interesting meeting last week.

The attendance at the meetings of the Junior mission band has increased very materially of late.

At the morning service next Sunday Rev. W. S. McTavish will preach a sermon to the children of the congregation. It is hoped the young people will be out in force.

Rev. W. S. McTavish and Mr. Russell attended the meeting of Presbytery in Kingston.

The choir has sustained a great loss by the removal of Miss Huff to Watertown. Miss Huff was a very efficient and devoted member whose services were always appreciated.

The instruction given by the pastor in the Bible class is highly spoken of by all who attend. New members are always welcome. There was a large attendance last Sunday at the meeting of the Y. N. S. C. Endeavor.

KINGSTON PRESBYTERY.

The regular quarterly meeting of Kingston Presbytery was held in Cooke's church, Kingston, last week. There was a good attendance. Rev. D. W. Mahart, of Madoc, was granted three weeks leave of absence on account of illness and a committee to consider his resignation. Rev. S. Cluderhose, of Eldorado, received a call from Parry Sound. Arrangements were made to get the views of his own congregation and a special meeting of Presbytery will be held in Belleville to consider the call. Revs. John Mackie and S. Cluderhose, and Messrs. P. Hudson and W. Mcintosh were appointed a committee to investigate certain financial troubles in the Strirling congregation and to report at the special meeting at Belleville. The congregation of Napanee were granted leave to borrow $2,500 for church improvement. Applications for license were received from several students of Queen's College. Rev. W. S. McTavish and W. A. Peck and Mr. S. Russell were appointed a committee to consider the proposed reorganization of the Newburgh and Tawamogish Presbyteries. J. M. Gray, of Strirling, was granted three months leave of absence. Commissioners were appointed to the general assembly. The Home Mission Committee gave their report which was of a very encouraging character. The field was never so well covered and the outlook was very encouraging. It was recommended to grant the prayer of the petitioners of Tyndinagang Reserve and the matter was left to the committee for further arrangement. The reports of the committees on church life and work and Sabbath schools were very able efforts and were discussed at length.

DEATH OF MRS. B. I. ALLISON.

Mrs. Benjamin I. Allison, of Marysville, Co. Hastings, died at the family residence, 2nd concession of Tyndinagang, on Friday, March 13th, 1896, having almost attained the seventy sixth year of her age, thus adding another to the long roll of old residents of this district who have of late been called to their long account.

The deceased, whose maiden name was Eliza Harriet Greeley, was born about two miles from Deseronto in the township of Spaulding. Her father was Jonathan Greeley, a well known farmer in this district. He was a cousin of Horace Greeley, the distinguished journalist and politician of New York City, who died about fifty years ago. With her husband settled in Tyndinagang township. The district where they located was then a wilderness and they were

Look for this Print in the Snow

It is the pattern of the heel of the Granby Rubber and Overshoe. The next time you buy a pair of rubbers or overshoes ask for Granby's and look for this pattern on the heel. There is no need to take a Granby that is not the same shape as your foot, because they are made to fit every shape of shoe. A rubber that does not fit the foot will draw the foot. Granby Rubbers are thin, light, elastic and fit perfectly. They wear like iron.

BLESSINGTON.

Miss Ada Hagerman, who has been visiting her cousin, Mr. Owen Robin, has returned to her home in Rawdon.

A little party of young people from this line spent Wednesday evening of last week at the residence of Mr. James McLaren, of Melton, and all report very enjoyable time.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sherman were visiting their daughter, Mrs. A. Tufts, of Tuftsville, last week.

Miss Lizzie Robertson, who is on the sick list, is favorably recovering under the careful attendance of Dr. Williamson.

Mr. Thompson, who has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Clara Ross, has returned to her home in Belleville.

The Salem Sabbath School is well attended under the management of J. Cole.

Mrs. James Ross is spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. P. Badgley, of Melton.

W. Bates is busy hauling lumber for the erection of his new residence in the near future.

Miss Clara Leslie returned home on Saturday after spending a few days with friends in Belleville.

J. Hatch, of Prince Edward Co., called on a few of his friends last week.

Miss Emma Reid, of Shannonville, is visiting at her mother's, Mr. J. M. Reid, of Melton.

Messrs. Fairman and Ross passed through the village one day last week on their way to Marysville.

Only ten days more in which to settle that little bill at Barnett's.

CENTREVILLE WEST.

We are anxiously waiting for warm weather. The roads are still in a poor condition.

La Grippe is very prevalent here and a great many are complaining with the disease.

A few from here expect to attend the Liberal meeting at Harrowsmith on the 27th inst.

Wm. McGill has disposed of all his hay, about two hundred tons. We can easily boast of a hay king. A large amount of it was taken to the northern townships, principally to Hangerford.

A few from here expect to attend the Liberal meeting at Harrowsmith on the 27th inst.

G. W. Dawson is steadily gaining in popularity and is sure to win. The majority see in him something above the ordinary members of parliament and he is one of the rising public men of Canada. When he starts on his campaign tour he will meet with a hearty reception.

Miss S. Dunn, of Deseronto, is visiting friends here at present.

A number from here expect to leave for Uncle Sam's domains shortly.

Some of our young men "holding down" their old trade again. The Hull fever seems to have died away.

Sales are numerous, puzzles are rarer and weddings—well they seem to be a thing of the past.

A. C. Barnett is offering special reductions on boots and shoes, groceries, etc., during the ten days prior to his removal from town.

PARMA.

Last Thursday and Friday was the worst blizzard we have had this winter and led the roads in a very bad state. Our daily mail from Adolphstown did not reach Napanee till seven o'clock in the evening.

There is a good deal of sickness in this place at present.

John Griffith has been confined to his bed for several days, he is the son of Dr. Ward, of Napanee. His sisters, Mrs. N. Sills and Mrs. E. Dunbar, were home last Tuesday to see him, the latter remaining a few days.

Ruben Garrison and Thomas Botting have also been confined to their beds for some days. Dr. Northmore, of Bath, has been attending them.

R. S. Cadman and James Stratton have been confined to the house for several days.

Quite a number of the farmers have been buying fodder for some time; they had the blues very bad last storm.

Thomas Carroll has bought Charles Wager's lot and moved in last week.

Miss M. Diamond, Herb, and Miss C. Wager were visiting friends at Mr. Delong's, Prince Edward County. They say they had a lovely time. Miss Diamond caught a very bad cold on their return home.

Some of the people in this part want to know if it will ever come spring again; they say if they should live for a thousand years they never want to see such a winter as this again.

D. Griffith has finished drawing his saw logs to Napanee.

GREYMA.

Winter still on; our farmers are pretty well through with their work. The next question is, how are we on for feed for the stock, that question being put often. It appears this part is pretty well off as there is a surplus of hay and it will be taken out of this to sell, very little to change hands in this locality.

Spring must be very near as Mr. Knight was around for deacon skin.

Tuesday evening of last week a jovial company of seventeen from Napanee got a rig and drove for Greyton to surprise Charles and Etta Mellow, but to their surprise they got in a comboly's field and the greater was how they got out as it was snowing very fast with a gale of wind, but after some time they found a house and the good man directed them the way to go and they got there. The surprise was admirable as they were covered with snow, shaking off their wraps they soon felt they had struck the right place. After spending some hours in having a good time they uncovered their baskets and served up sandwiches, cake and coffee and a more jolly crowd would be hard to find. The night was very rough outside but extra fine within. They finished up with singing and instrumental music and left in great cheer. They were told to come again.

Visitors—S. H. Mellow and wife of Belleville; Mrs. and Mrs. Mellow of Sandhurst at W. J. Mellow's.

P. Young, who has been laid up with la grippe, is around again.

Mrs. Jacob Hough has been ailing but we are pleased to say it is getting better.

The fire at Colon destroyed 90 houses.

Robert Anderson, a well known capitalist of Montreal, is dead.

Alexander Reid, a deaf mute, was killed by a train at Belleville.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Mr. F. C. Gilchrist, Fort Qu'Appell, Government Inspector of Fisheries, died last Friday.

Christopher James, a farmer near St. Thomas, was killed last Friday by a straw stack falling upon him.

A boiler in the mill of H. B. Palmerston, near Elmerwood, exploded Friday, killing a young man named Lewis Cole.

The firm of Haines, Lidebeck & Co., manufacturers' agents, Montreal, have assigned their liabilities of about $35,000.

The resolution concerning Ealed States Ambassador Bayard for his Boston and Edinburgh speeches passed the house at Washington.

The attacked men of the Royal School of Infantry at St. John's, Quebec, who refused to do fatigue duty were found guilty of mutiny by the court-martial.

Mr. John Morley, Friday, in the Imperial House of Commons, moved a vote of confidence resolution in the Government in the Egyptian policy. The resolution was lost on a division of 52 to 145.

W. F. Harper, late Manager of the Merchants' Bank, London, is dead.

A woman and three children were burned to death at Danville, Quebec, on Friday.

During a fire at Port Perry a wall fell on John Moore and killed him.

Wm. Q. Judge, President of the Theosophical Society of America, died in New York.

Friction among the officers threatens to destroy the usefulness of the Fifth Royal Scots of Montreal.

William Albert Smith was found guilty by Judge Hughes at St. Thomas on two charges of bigamy. He has three wives living.

W. R. Thorburn, a London dairyman, has been sentenced to a term of imprisonment for some young cattle to starve to death in an open field.

Old Mr. Carney, father of the young men in London, died on the charge of murdering James Agnew, is losing his reason through grief.

F. J. Lewis, who has for over 21 years been Manager of the Bank of Montreal at St. John's, has been elected Mayor of the city.

Handsome gifts by the citizens, on the occasion of his removal to Montpel.

The North Staffordshire regiment, numbering 900 men, has been ordered to embark on steamers for their journey to the Nile for Wady Halfa. A Sikh regiment from India has been ordered to take part in the operations at Mombasa, East Africa, on March 15.

A PLAGUE SPOT.

That gambling at Monte Carlo is a big and paying business for the casino proprietors is apparent from the circumstance that the Prince of Monaco has raised the question from them from $300,000 to $400,000 a year. This little principally virtually under French control, is but six miles from the English coast, and has a population of 12,000. The capital, known the world over as a gambling resort, has a population of less than 1,000. It is the moral plague spot of Europe.

AFRER ALASKAN GOLD.

From the Denver Republican we learn that James Duggan, brother of Police Captain George Duggan, of that city, and formerly of Prince Edward County, has just started with a party of some sixty able-bodied men for Alaska, where the organizer of the party, Capt. Homer Pennock, has discovered a gold field.

The prospect is bright. There are very rich and there is said to be an abundance of ore and free gold. The party sailed from Seattle on March 15th for Sika, from which a vessel will be sent to the land to the scene of operations. The expedition will be away two years.

WEST END MISSION.

There was a very enjoyable entertainment on Thursday evening of last week in the charitable room of Mr. Sims, who never seems happy unless it is in contributing to others' happiness, kindly invited the members of the choir to spend the evening with her and all who were invited.

Refreshments were served, amusements of various kinds were indulged in throughout the evening and at the usual hour of separation all went to their homes with the determination to do better service in future.

The Mission is doing good work, the Sabbath School is prospering, has a good staff of teachers, a very zealous superintendent and nearly one hundred scholars on the books. The services are well attended. The hall is crowded at the evening service and would be hearse to go away for want of room.

If this state of things continues, and all hope it will, the Mission people will have to get a larger building—but how. Ah! there's the rub,—Com.

RUPTURE.

Mr. B. Lindman, of Toronto, manufacturer and proprietor of the celebrated Wilkinsons' Truss, died at the Deseronto House in Deseronto on Monday the 13th of April, for purpose of fitting those suffering from hernia or rupture.

His truss was of excellent and simple design, and the Wilkinsons' Truss are well known, being most highly endorsed by those wearing them or having used them from the Atlantic to the Pacific as also by every physician and surgeon in Toronto, without exception. You have no doubt noticed the use of the truss and the ease with which the rupture may be reduced and retained for a time by the fingers; the action of the human hand is not only reducing but fully retaining the rupture, it has no complex attachments, it is simple it is perfect. Mr. Lindman was a well known and successful manufacturer of the "Deseronto House" in Deseronto on 13th of April. Success attends the Wilkinsons' Truss everywhere. Unfortunately there are many more or less worthless trusses in the market that confidence in trusses has been lost by many. But this is the age of progress and we are in those requiring a perfect truss that this is the Truss par excellence.

PRESENTATIONS AT GANANQUE.

Last Saturday evening Mr. J. Frank Chapman, Vice-Superintendent of the Canadian Island Railway here, was presented at the company's office with a handsome marble clock by the committee of the T. I. line and Rathbun's agency here to town, accompanied by an address expressing great regret at his departure, gratification at his promotion and referring to the friendly feelings which had always existed between him and them.

After all had been seated, Mr. W. B. Carroll, in a few well-chosen remarks, stated the object of the gathering and before taking his seat read several addresses in which flattering references were made to Mr. Chapman's energy, courtesy and efficiency as an official, and assuring him that he carried to his new sphere the best wishes of all in Gananoque.

Mr. Geo. Taylor, South Leeds' able representative in the House of Commons, now asked Mr. Chapman's acceptance of a handsome clock service, and paid him a high compliment for the able and honorable manner in which he has discharged the duties of his office during the past seven years, giving the best of his services to the community.

To say the least it was a big surprise to Mr. Chapman, who responded in an able manner, thanking his many friends on behalf of himself and wife for their kindness in thus remembering him. He said he would never forget his stay in Gananoque and its many pleasant memories, but would always cherish the fondest recollections of Gananoque and its hospitable people. He then reviewed his career here in the interests of the Company and said that although he was going away, still if anyone wanted a favor and it was in his power to grant it, he would be glad to do so. His successor Mr. Chapman said that in Mr. Doughty the citizens would find an official as valuable to the duties of his office and at all times ready and willing to meet all bills in the adjustment of any difficulty that might arise. Too much could not be said in Mr. Doughty's favor, as he was a gentleman of the highest character and a man who would give the utmost satisfaction.

Addresses were also delivered by Mr. C. E. Britton, a leading manufacturer and High Chief Engineer of the C. O. P. Mr. J. C. Rose, barrister, Mayor of Gananoque, Rogers, Mr. C. V. Ketchum, Manager of the Bank of Toronto, Mr. W. G. Hinde, Manager of the Bank of Montreal, Mr. C. Bowen, President of the T. I. line, Mr. W. G. Matthews, manager of the Spring & Axle Co., G. M. Skinner, of Clayton, N. Y., and many others in which chosen words gave highly of Mr. Chapman's connection with the T. I. line here, and wished him every success in his new capacity.

Mr. Chapman, as many of our readers are aware, has been appointed to the position of Traffic Manager of the Island Railway & Navigation Co., with head office at Deseronto. We must congratulate him on his high appointment, and also hope that he will find the past has been fully appreciated by the Rathbun Co., who will find in Mr. Chapman fully capable to discharge the important duties now on his hands.

The my friends of Mr. and Mrs. Chapman will join with the Journal in extending to them feelings of regret at their departure from our midst, but also in wishing them every success in their new sphere. They will make many friends here in Gananoque they will make many friends in Deseronto.—Gananoque Journal.

REDUCING COUNTY COUNCILS.

Hon. Mr. Hardy when moving the second reading of his bill to reduce the number of County Councils, said that municipalities require a large number of Councilors while they are being organized, but that when they are well established the number should be reduced.

The scheme proposed that two commissions proposed of Judges, one for the western and one for the eastern part of Ontario, be appointed, to divide the count into two parts, each of which would elect two Councilors for the County Council. They would be elected for two years, and be eligible for re-election.

SAVED MY HORSE.

Douglas & Co., Napanee, Ont.

Dear Sirs,—During the summer of 1890 I had a mare staked in such a manner that people advised me to shoot her. I got Douglas's Egyptian Liniment and Syring, and after rubbing the skin open on ramp was cured, while just as the stoke, which was nothing less than a very bad case of Rheumatism, had gone in her back and was pulled out at the root of tail. After using Douglas's Egyptian Liniment as directed, my mare was at work in three weeks. The above happened in distressing hot weather. In summer no great heat was ever threatened. I declare the above to be correct and true.

A FAMILY OF VARIED COLOURS.

The death of Mrs. Black, mother-in-law of Archibald Black, is announced. Her maiden name was Brown and her mother's name was White. It is unique for four generations to have the names White, Brown, Black and Blue.—Berlin Record.

NERVOUS PROSTRATION.

Is a deplorable condition of body, to which the mind to some degree responds; the sufferer becomes a victim to a legion of disagreeable sensations, arising from the impairment or exhaustion of nerve or vital force. Sleeplessness, loss of appetite, loss of energy, nervousness, and a disordered digestive function contribute to the already full cup of misery. Care is possible in one way only—the nervous system must be strengthened; the digestive and assimilative function must be restored.

Maltine with Coca Wine, more than any preparation known to science, combines the two essentials required in these cases. Maltine with Coca Wine possesses only properties that are directed in a very special way to the nervous system, giving them tone, vigor, and the staying power so much needed, while just as efficaciously does it aid and strengthen all the processes of digestion. Thus we have the production of all the elements of a healthy, useful, and vigorous life. Maltine with Coca Wine is sold by all druggists.

THE REMEDIAL BILL.

The following figures give the vote by provinces on the second reading of the Remedial Bill:

Province	For	Against
Ontario	85	52
Quebec	32	29
Nova Scotia	15	6
New Brunswick	14	2
P. E. Island	4	1
Manitoba	4	1
Northwest	4	0
British Columbia	6	0
Total	112	94

CHURCH OF THE REDEEMER.

The children's service last Sunday morning was well attended. It was bright and cheerful, and very much appreciated both by young and old.

The ladies of the Missionary Society are collecting material for a box of clothing to be sent to the North-West in August.

The Pastor was out at Newburgh yesterday on Presbytery committee work.

There was a large attendance at the Sunday school last Sunday.

The senior division of the mission band meets at 7:15 this evening; the junior at 8 p.m. Saturday.

LIFE SAVED

By the Persistent Use of

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"I was troubled for years with a sore on my knee, which several physicians, who treated me, called a cancer, assuring me that nothing could be done to save my life. As a last resort, I was induced to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, after taking a number of bottles, the sore began to disappear and my general health improved. I persisted in this treatment until the sore was entirely healed. Since then, Ayer's Sarsaparilla has been used as a tonic and blood-purifier, and, indeed, it seems as though I could not keep house without it."—Mrs. S. A. FIELDS, Bloomfield, Ia.

other Narcotic substance. It is a harmless substitute for Paregoric, Drops, Soothing Syrup, and Castor Oil.
It is Pleasant. Its guarantee is thirty years' use by Millions of Mothers. Castoria destroys Worms and all verminousness. Castoria prevents vomiting Sour Curs, cures Diarrhoea and Wind Colic. Castoria relieves teething troubles, cures constipation and flatulency.
Castoria assimilates the food, regulates the stomach and bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. Castoria is the Children's Panacea—the Mother's Friend.

Castoria.
"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."
Dr. G. C. Orson,
Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children which I am acquainted. I have tried it for years, and it has never failed to give me satisfactory results. It is a harmless substitute for the various narcotic medicines which are so often given to children, and it is in better and more immediate demand, than the ordinary syrup trade is of a similar character." Cotton and wool

Time to Prune the Apple.

The best time to prune the apple is when the knife is sharp! This is rank heresy in the eyes of many who favor pruning only in winter, but it is borne out by tests at Cornell Experiment Station in Central New York. In '01, six good-sized apple trees were set apart, and a portion of a young orchard has also been used for experimentation. That season limbs were cut off every month in the year. This winter the scars have been carefully studied and photographed and no difference can be found in the healing over. That is, no difference can be discovered that would cause the recommending of any particular month to prune. The wounds at time of pruning were covered with all the different substances recommended, and no advantage could be discovered by their use over no treatment, in healing over these wounds which were one to four inches in diameter. Prof. Bailey goes so far as to say that the use of grafting wax, shellac, paint and various other coverings for wounds made by the removal of limbs, is only valuable to keep out bacteria and thus prevent rot. The ideal remedy for this would be bordeaux mixture (but it does not last), as the other recommended substances in a brief time allow germs to obtain a foothold. The rapidly growing upright branched heal over much more quickly than the slower growing laterals. Make smooth clean cuts and cut close to body of tree, and make the cut on side branches parallel with the body of the tree and not at a right angle to the limb cut off, if by so doing the cut would not be on a line with the tree.

CURIOUS RELIGIOUS CUSTOMS.

Followers of Mahomet Who Believe in Killing.

At different times some very remarkable customs have been practiced in the name of religion, both by heathens and Christians. The followers of Mahomet, for example, have always had a reputation for blood-hirstiness in the course of their efforts to conquer the world; but perhaps the sect called Assassins, from whom the modern word assassin is derived, have been among the most cruel. They had large settlements in Persia and in Syria, and existed for about 200 years—during the eleventh, twelfth and thirteenth centuries.

The chief of the sect was called the Old Man of the Mountain. All the members were trained in absolute obedience to him, holding themselves ready at any moment to murder any person that he might point out. It was customary to give to these murderers an inebriating draught when they were about to execute the chief's commands, called hashish, made from the leaves of hemp. It is from this that the word assassin is derived.

The Thugs were an Indian sect with customs not unlike the Assassins. With them the great object was to kill by stealthily means, and the stories that have come down to us of their doing show that their skill in approaching and slaying their victims unobserved was perfectly extraordinary. The name is derived from a Hindu word, thag, a deceiver. Every Thug was considered as a sacrifice offered to their Goddess Kali. It is not known how long they existed. They were found in active operation when the English conquered India, but it was not till 1810 measures were taken to exterminate them. It was some twenty or thirty years after this date that they were ultimately crushed.

The followers of Simon Stylites offer one of the most curious examples. This man was one of a number of Christian ascetics in very early times who endeavored to live the most austere lives, and were apparently always on the lookout for some new method of giving themselves pain.

St. Simon conceived the idea of living on the top of a pillar, so that he could never lie down, but he was to be always standing, kneeling or sitting. In this way he is said to have passed thirty years, and died in 451. The name is derived from the Greek word stylis, a pillar, and the followers of Simon were called Stylites, or pillar saints.

The Zanzibellians were followers of a man named Zanzibell, who collected a body of adherents in Syria in the year 535. They were called Christians, though they held the belief that baptism was not to be performed with water but with fire. Carrying this belief into practice, they used red-hot iron, with which they branded and burned their converts.

A Score of Evenings.

The two girls were walking along Woodward avenue talking about their best young men of course. At least, one of them was.

"Charley was up to see me last night," she said, with a twinkle.

"That's twice in a week, isn't it?" inquired the other.

"Yes," she blushed and giggled.

"I suppose he'll come three times in the next week!"

"I suppose so."

"And four times the next?"

"That's what brother says."

"And five times the next?"

"That's what sister says."

"And six times the next?"

"That's what auntie says."

"And seven times the next?"

"That's what papa says."

"And then what?"

"Then we'll get married; that's what everybody says."

"And then what?"

"Then I won't have him any more of an evening; that's what mamma says."

Snow Hill (Md.) Messenger.

A New Kind of Sandwich.

Have you eaten of the very latest dish? It's a latest in every sense of the word, for it's a dish that goes with the mid-nights Welsh rabbit, and is the newest and best sort of a sandwich. You take fresh bread and perfect butter. Then you have some fresh roasted peanuts—it's the fat to coat them yourself—grind fine in a coffee-mill. Next you mix the ground nut into a paste with a little sherry or old port, spread them on the bread and there you have the sandwich everybody is eating. You may substitute almond essence, or add a drop of almond essence, but a peanut sandwich you must have if you are to follow the fashion set, they say, by the wife of a Cabinet member.—Washington Post.

Next Sunday IS PALM SUNDAY

Each year Palm Sunday comes.

It has for quite a number of years and will for quite a few more. Many do not know what Palm Sunday means.

DISTRICT ITEMS.

The A. O. U. W. will build a new hall at Morris.

Madeo will hold a Queen's birthday celebration.

The marble quarry at Actonville will probably be reopened.

The bridge near the mouth of the Clare River has been completed.

Print & Co. of the single mill near Southwick was burned recently.

Deputy receiver Baker of Hungerford is recovering from his recent illness.

Several parties have sold their mineral rights at Actonville for a consideration.

M. W. Watts, of Larkins, leaves for Odesa, where he has accepted a position.

W. A. Knowles, 5th con. of Hungerford, will give up farming and reside in Stoo.

George Gallett has sold his property at Chapman to Mr. Wright, of Queensboro.

The Epworth League of Morris contributed twenty dollars for the suffering Armenians.

John Short, a well known traveller for a brewing company, died recently at Port Hope.

The Independent Oldfellows of Thomasburg recently enjoyed a very successful "at home."

Roy Benjamin, of Odesa, has bought a meat market in Napanee and will remove thither.

The Rathbun Company are making improvements and an extension to the works at Napanee Mills.

Clarence Rogers, a young Trentonian, headed the list in the Pharmacy examination at Buffalo, N. Y.

Brooklyn town council has given permission for the construction of an electric street railway within its limits.

It has been figured out that Lake Ontario pours 150,000,000 gallons of water into St. Lawrence river daily.

About thirty men recently left Trenton to work on the new mill being erected by the Messrs. Gilmour at Canoe Lake.

At least 20 logs were cut from one tree, some 15 feet long, and the shortest 10 not less than ten feet. The butt of the tree measured 52 inches.

Joseph Rousselle, St. died of inflammation of the lungs and returned home to Renfrew from the lumber woods where he caught cold.

John Doyle, one of the most prosperous farmers of Drummondville, died recently. There were 160 pigs in the funeral procession.

Wesley Parrott, an old resident of Millhaven, died on the 15th. Mrs. Henry Nicholson, formerly of Millhaven, died at Brownville, N. Y.

COUGHS AND COLDS lead to consumption if neglected. Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup cures quickly and is pleasant to take. It is nature's remedy for all throat and lung troubles.

Reuben Harrington is moving in the old Carleton farm across the river in Napanee. Daniel Withers, who previously occupied the farm, is moving to Eriestown.

Mrs. David Woodcock, of Kennebec, died recently at the age of 102 years. Her husband survives and it is said to be older than that.

David Card, aged 87, has been spending the winter in Napanee, all on account of heart trouble. And yet these eight elderly counselors refuse to erect a house of industry or refuge for such unfortunate.

DEATH FROM HEART FAILURE

THAT MIGHT HAVE BEEN AVOIDED BY THE USE OF DR. AGNEW'S CURE FOR THE HEART.

Promptness is the first essential in all cases of sickness, and especially in heart disease. Minutes may mean everything. The use of an effective medicine may mean the saving of a life, where the use of that possessing little power may simply lead to death to take its course. One great virtue of Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart is that it gives relief almost immediately, whether the case be that of organic or systematic heart disease. The numerous testimonials received by the proprietor of this medicine bear the strongest testimony to this fact. "I would not have been alive to-day had it not been for your medicine," is the cheering refrain of a large percentage of the letters received by the proprietor of this remedy.

Sold by W. G. Egar.

Lord Aberdeen is to open the Lindsay Park next fall and Sir Charles Tupper the Peterborough fair.

A writ was recently issued on behalf of Eliza Simms, of Port Hope, against Richard Miller, of the same place, for breach of promise. The defendant is said to be over 80 years of age and possessed of some property, while the plaintiff is not quite that old. Lawyer Wood of Port Hope, is acting for the defence. Another writ has been issued, at the instance of Mary Ann Graham, spinster, of Hamilton township, against Robert Wood, of Hamilton township, for $1,000, for breach of promise of marriage.

CHIEF ROAD MACHINE.

Webb Donnell Describes One That Can be Made.

The use of a scraper in ridding up a road has been very thoroughly established since the road machines came into use. The old-fashioned method of scraping the earth into the middle of a road from the sides was most tedious and slow, the scraper having to be lifted bodily by two men and carried back to the side of the road for each load, while the oxen for horses had, of course, to be backed each time. A scraper diagonally set and run lengthwise of the road brings in the earth quickly and easily, but road machines are expensive, and for the making of farm roads, especially the home-made scraper that is figured herewith serves a very good purpose, while for making smooth rough country highway, and for gradually working the earth from the sides to the center of the road, this scraper, preceded by a harrow, will be found of very great assistance with most of our country roads is that they are flat, so that the rainfall either stands on the surface and makes it extremely muddy, or if the road is in a rolling or hilly country, the water runs along the middle of the highway, and badly washes it. The scraper, if used in a rolling or hilly country, the water runs along the middle of the highway, and badly washes it. The scraper, if used in a rolling or hilly country, the water runs along the middle of the highway, and badly washes it.

These two points, I think, account for a large share of our poor highways—a flat surface and poor drainage at the sides. If towns would only see that it is much better to make thorough work as far as they go, there would be great lessening of the present troubles. There seems to be a prevailing opinion in many places to just enough to keep the roads just passable—to do just enough on them "to catch the law"—with a result that every rain puts the roads back where they were before any work at all was done upon them.

It ought to be seen that in the end this is the most expensive plan that could be pursued. Make the roads as wide as possible, round them well, keep the side drains well open and the outlets clear, and even hard storms will not wash them. Gravel is very few towns can afford to spend large sums in making scientific rock-ballasted roads, but all can use good common sense in directing the labor that is to be expended upon them. Our roads are poor, not because a large amount of labor has not been expended upon them first and last, but because so much of this labor has been wasted and therefore wasted—Webb Donnell, in N. Y. Tribune.

Live-Stock Notes. Use pure bred sires, always. Pick the best females for breeders, and never breed to scrub stock.

The sugar beet cattle of Lehi, Utah, is the source of cattle feeding on cut pulp. It is reported that cattle thrive finely on this food. The use of beet pulp for stock food is common in Europe.

During the winter weather the use of feed of fowls should be given as late as possible and should consist of whole grain. This will keep them warm through the winter. If any corn given the fowls it should be just before they go to roost, as the corn takes longer to digest than the smaller grains.

Many farmers salt their cows only in summer when on green feed. But the salt is just as much needed now, and if given will make the butter come more quickly. It is probably true that part of the difficulty in making winter butter is due to the lack of salt, and especially to the lack of sufficient and regular supply of salt. The best way is, if stock have not been accustomed to having salt beside them, to give a little each day until the appetite for salt is partially excited. An overdose of salt will do harm, but in an attack of scours and probably in permanent injury to the digestive organs.

Fowls with black legs are the best for roasting, while the white ones are the best for broiling, was an English opinion expressed nearly 40 years ago. It would hardly match the American idea of yellow-legged fowls being superior to all table purposes. But, looking at the matter from an prejudiced standpoint, we believe both the English and American can do no more or less the optimum born from custom. Neither have any substantial grounds upon which to base their decision.

Most spring colts are weaned only a little before the pastures are frost bitten. The chance to dry feed, and often of not very nutritious quality, which is hard for them the first winter. Some extra grain will pay more than this. There is no kind of feed that is better for colts than oats. The hulls prevent the grains from injuring them. Begin with a pint of oats at a feed, and gradually increase until the colt takes a quart at a feed or two quarts per day. The cost with oats as cheap as they now are is very little.

In most of the discussions about what kinds of food are best, the fact is overlooked that no one food gives all the nutritive elements which their proper combination for best results. A variety of food is needed not merely to tempt appetite, but to keep animals in the best of health. This is especially important for animals that are being fattened and thus encouraged to eat all they can. It is especially true of hogs, which are grown, and which need not in so much of their feed the elements that make bones, is the staple grain feed with most farmers, is least adapted of all for a single ration.

For a Child's Nursery. One of the most useful pieces of furniture that can be devised for a nursery is a big ottoman, with the top lifts up, in which all toys can be put at night.

This can be of home manufacture, made from a long, narrow packing box covered with cloth, the cover pulled out and covered with the same. Two or three drawers placed on it will convert it into a very comfortable divan for the mother.

NAPLES' FISHERMEN.

HARD AND POORLY-PAID TOIL IS THEIR LOT.

The Picturesque Street Merchants of the Ancient City—Gallant American Tourists Are Their Special Prey.

For a city of its size Naples has few industries indeed. What a difference there is in contemplating it and some American city from the water! Chicago, for example, with its crown of smoke, despite all the smoke-consuming and smoke ordinances, or Detroit, with its industries looks like a city of manufacturers set upon the bank of a noble stream of water, are in marked contrast to smokeless Naples, where no belching chimneys mar the background of snowy mountain tops or to obscure the charming cove line. But this absence of smoke is a lamentable indication of the abject poverty of the populace. Though a black, murky and disagreeable cloud, the city that does not wear it, as the manufacturers and industrial center draws to a close, is to be regarded with commiseration by more favored municipalities. Naples has a brighter crown, the clear blue sky and the snow-capped mountains, and she sits with her loveliness reflected in the mirror of the sunlit sea, but her royal raiment and shining attire are powerless to conceal the rags and tatters of her people. Better the smoky crown of the American cities!

What are Naples' industries? There are the fisheries, market gardening, and the tortoise shell industry and the bronze factories. How the thousands of persons engaged in any of these occupations manage to live is beyond comprehension.

Remarkable Leaps and Falls by Men, Women and Children Without Injury.

From how great a height may a person fall and live? This question was suggested by the performance of Dr. Hain, the Zurich professor, who in the Sunday World told how he fell a great distance down a glacier in Switzerland and lived to relate his sensations. His aim was to prove that sudden death is not painful. The other phase of the question—how far may we fall unhurt?—is just as interesting, however.

The well-known Alps wanderer, Sigrist, fell backward off the crown of the Eigerstock. At the Swiss Alps, and landed on the rocks at the foot of the glacier. Of course, his fall was somewhat broken as he landed from spur to spur, but the fall was a great one nevertheless.

Of the persons who have fallen from balloons no record has been kept, but the accidents have been sufficiently dangerous to prove that a great fall does not always end human life. On July 26 last The World recorded the feat of a negro who, to escape punishment for stealing a ride, jumped from a train as it was passing over Delaware bridge on the Erie railroad at Port Jervis, N. Y. He fell a distance of eighty feet, and though striking on his head in a bed of gravel covered only by six inches of water, he escaped serious injury.

Here is a case of an infant: At Rockaway Beach on Sept. 8, baby George Mey, two years old, tumbled out of a third-story window without receiving any injuries except a bruised eye and a skinned nose. He crept to the window while his mother was asleep. His fall was broken by an awning.

Women seem especially able to drop from any height and receive little or no injury. In France recently a woman failed to commit suicide by jumping from a high bridge. She was hardly injured. Near Niagara Falls a woman fell over a precipice and landed some hundred feet below, and was able to tell of it.

Benjamin Keener jumped out of a fifth story window of No. 125 East One Hundred and Eighth street, and sustained no harm on his fall. The woman who was half asleep at the time and walked over the roof of her own house to that of a neighbor's. She swung off the roof to a drop-scene, and asked the occupants of No. 125 for brandy. On being refused, she leaped to the ground. Clothes lines stretched across the yard between the two buildings, and the woman rebounded from one of these to another in her fall, until she finally landed badly shaken but otherwise unhurt.

On Aug. 15, Alexander Johnson, a janitor residing in Middletown, Conn., fell from the fourth story of a building on which he was working, turning a complete somersault and striking with his head on some boards which projected from the first story. He managed to catch hold of the edge of the building, and when he was rescued. He fell forty feet. He was not injured in any way.

Amie Ebert recently fell out of the third story window of No. 100 First avenue and was not killed. A few weeks since Christopher Breckin, crazed by misfortune, jumped from the third story window of a tenement house at No. 502 East Twelfth street. He landed on the sidewalk fifty feet below, and when his wife reached him he was sitting on the curbstone surrounded by a pack of small children. Sprains of the ankles were his only injuries.

Edward Christie fell from a scaffold which gave way at the fourth floor of a new building at Madison avenue and Twenty-second street recently. Although he fell forty stories, he sustained no more than a fracture of the thighs and right arm. Christian Jensen, a painter, of White Plains, N. Y., fell from a ladder to the ground, a distance of forty feet, and is alive to tell of it. George Falley, fourteen years old, fell through the floor-scrap of No. 724 Fourth avenue, from the fourth story to the first floor, and received no the slightest injury. Such is the elasticity of youth.

Express Messenger Edward Stevens, of Water Valley, Miss., on July 27 last, was diving and fell from his car door. He was not killed, and twenty-two miles had been passed. A message was sent back to the effect that he must have been killed. He was not. He was as well as he could be, and he was on his way back to his home. He was not injured in any way.

legory of the picturesque Neapolitan. Poverty should be the fundamental system of trade, and if he desecrated the guttles Americans how hurt they would be and what a shock it would be to their faith in human nature which had already received several jabs in the land of olives and arbutus. Did he wish to destroy the illusion of the childlike innocence of these simple children of the sunny south? As the writer spoke he drew out a tobacco pouch from which to fill a pipe, and the only answer the Neapolitan gave was a glance of the least to make a cigarette. He rolled this skilfully, lighted it with much artifice and handed it to another American to whom he would endeavor to sell these "genuine" tortoise-shell articles. He had smiled when remarking as blandly as a child, and really seemed to enjoy having been detected in fraud. Italian like, he got something out of the victory. It was not much—only a cigarette—but it was something.

He landed on the sidewalk fifty feet below, and when his wife reached him he was sitting on the curbstone surrounded by a pack of small children. Sprains of the ankles were his only injuries.

Edward Christie fell from a scaffold which gave way at the fourth floor of a new building at Madison avenue and Twenty-second street recently. Although he fell forty stories, he sustained no more than a fracture of the thighs and right arm. Christian Jensen, a painter, of White Plains, N. Y., fell from a ladder to the ground, a distance of forty feet, and is alive to tell of it. George Falley, fourteen years old, fell through the floor-scrap of No. 724 Fourth avenue, from the fourth story to the first floor, and received no the slightest injury. Such is the elasticity of youth.

Express Messenger Edward Stevens, of Water Valley, Miss., on July 27 last, was diving and fell from his car door. He was not killed, and twenty-two miles had been passed. A message was sent back to the effect that he must have been killed. He was not. He was as well as he could be, and he was on his way back to his home. He was not injured in any way.
